International Code Of Conduct On Pesticide Management:

International Code of Conduct on Pesticide Management World Health Organization, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2025-07-16 The purpose of this Code of Conduct is to provide guidance on different phase out options to a country's government authorities and other stakeholders where they have decided to remove or ban a pesticide product from their market and guide on the development and implementation of a phase out plan for risk reduction. Therefore the starting point of the guidance is when the regulatory authority identifies the potential need to remove a pesticide product or active ingredient. This guidance also includes the case of a voluntary pesticide withdrawal by a pesticide registration holder. The guidance describes different aspects that need to be considered when deciding on a suitable phase out strategy. It also provides guidance on how to select appropriate strategies for the planning and implementation of risk reduction and risk communication plans. National plans and strategies will largely depend on a country's legal and regulatory context, the hazard and risks of the pesticide as well as on the country's capacities to implement the phase out elements. Therefore guidance will also be provided on options to establish or strengthen the regulatory framework needed to support the phase out process.

The International Code of Conduct on Pesticide Management, 2014 The International Code of Conduct on Pesticide Management Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2015-04-16 The International Code of Conduct on Pesticide Management provides a framework which will guide government regulators, the private sector, civil society and other stakeholders on best practice in managing pesticides. This version incorporates public health pesticides and vector control to broaden the scope of the Code of Conduct beyond agricultural pesticides. It gives greater attention to health and environmental aspects of pesticides, updates a number of definitions and terms and aligns guidance in several technical areas with developments in international chemicals management. Through effective implementation of The International Code of Conduct on Pesticide Management a significant reduction of risks to health and to the environment from pesticides can be achieved while improving the productivity, sustainability and livelihoods of farmers everywhere.

International Code of Conduct on Pesticide Management: guidance on the monitoring and the observance of implementation of the code of conduct World Health Organization, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2023-07-07 International Code of Conduct on Pesticide Management Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, World Health Organization, 2023-04-29 The objective of this guidance on fulfilling the reporting requirements of Article 12 of the Code of Conduct is to obtain a regular flow of information on its observance to strengthen implementation of the Code to provide data for its future revisions and improvement and most importantly to improve the protection of human health and the environment related to pesticide use and management in agriculture and public health. The guidance was prepared in compliance with the FAO WHO International Code of Conduct on Pesticide Management which sets out a framework and voluntary standards of conduct for stakeholders in pesticide management in particular governments and the pesticide industry Endorsed by FAO WHO governments pesticide producers non governmental organizations and other stakeholders the Code outlines their shared responsibility to promote best practice and risk reduction throughout the pesticide life cycle The Code of Conduct thereby establishes the commitment and moral obligation of stakeholders to comply with the agreed standards of conduct and to assume their respective responsibilities These include governments responsibility to promote pesticide risk reduction and the industry s responsibility to produce products that are adapted to the context of their use and to provide stewardship of those products throughout their life cycle This guidance was prepared with the support of the FAO WHO Joint Meeting on Pesticide Management JMPM to provide further guidance on the provisions of the Code of Conduct related to its observance and implementation It reflects the joint FAO WHO approach to pesticide management thus addressing the topic in both agricultural and public health settings International Code of Conduct on Pesticide Management ,2020-12-23
