Science Interactions Aldridge, 1993 Constructing, Reconstructing and Reclaiming Learner Identities Ellen Preston Motohashi, 2025-09-16 This book focuses on the experiences of 1.5 generation Filipinos in Japan, charting their life histories and educational experiences in both the Philippines and Japan. Against a background of transnational migrations between both countries and varying levels of Japanese as a Second Language and educational support for immigrant non Japanese speaking children in Japanese schools the author uses a narrative life history approach to consider how the participants use their educational histories and learner identities as intangible resources upon which they drew to overcome the structural and cultural differences in the teaching learning environments they encountered in Japanese schools The book ends by recounting the participants regained sense of confidence as learners upon entering university where they reclaim their learner identities as active participants in the classroom with several receiving awards for academic excellence Exploring Pharmaceutics Parrott,1997 Dissertation Abstracts International ,2008 Exploring Chemistry (Loose-Leaf) Matthew Johll,2012-05-04 Matthew Johll s Exploring Chemistry covers the standard topics for the nonmajors course in the typical order but each chapter unfolds in the context of a single case study that helps students connect what they are learning to real life situations For example students work through the often difficult topics of molecular structure gas laws and organic chemistry by learning about the development of powerful new chemotherapy drugs new technologies for screening airline passengers and the creation of biodegradable biopolymers It s the same case driven approach that Johll uses in his acclaimed Investigating Chemistry now in its Third Edition but Exploring Chemistry goes beyond the other book s specific focus on examples from forensic science to use real life stories from cooking athletics genetics green chemistry and more
