Page 1-22 Monday, July 5th

1. How does this book appear to be different from any other books you have read? State two specific differences. What do you think Walter Dean Myers was trying to accomplish by writing his novel in this way?

It looks like it is handwritten and a journal. It also looks like a script. Answers may vary.

2. Why does the narrator choose to present the events that happen to him in a script form?

He wants to take himself out of what is happening and think it out if it is too hard to deal with.

3. Who is O'Brien? What are her suggestions? What does she say is her job? How does she perceive Steve's situation?

She is Steve's defense lawyer. She says that he needs to take things seriously and not worry at his friends. She said it is her job to make Steve look as human as possible. She said he might go to jail for life or even get the death penalty if they are not careful.

4. What does the grand mean when he says Steve's case is a "million cases"? What does this say about truth and justice in the American Jury System?

They go through the motions of a fair trial and then look them up anyway. It shows that they are not willing to listen or are biased to the defendant. The jury system is flawed in some ways because it still allows biased people to pass unfair judgments.

5. What purpose is the flashback to Steve's Film Class? What does Savich say to Steve?

Things come to a head when both Viola and Sebastian are discovered to be different from the fictional Cesario.

Seedfolks - Literature Kit Gr. 5-6 Chad Ibbotson, 2020-06-16 Strangers become a community in this heartwarming story about overcoming prejudices and finding a common ground. The vocabulary lists and quizzes create a complete resource that saves time while preparing these lessons. Students make predictions on how certain characters might be connected to each other. Analyze Leona's comments about her experience dealing with officials to characterize her feelings towards them. Answer multiple choice questions about Virgil's relationship with his father. Students explore Sae Young's actions when the thunderstorm fills the rain collection barrels and relates this back to the themes of the book. Imagine being Virgil's father and create a business plan for the baby lettuce idea. Detail how the setting of the book evolves with the characters in a transformation graphic organizer. Aligned to your State Standards and written to Bloom's Taxonomy, additional crossword, word search, comprehension quiz, and answer key are also included.

About the Novel Seedfolks follows the intertwining stories of several neighbors as they break down barriers and form a community. A vacant lot in Cleveland, Ohio, is not the perfect spot for Kim to plant her lima beans. It's too cold, and there's not very much sun. She does this anyway, in honor of her father. Little does she know that this action will intrigue the neighbors she knows only as strangers and cause a ripple effect throughout the neighborhood. Each chapter follows a different neighbor and their personal journey that brought them to this vacant lot. People of varying ages, genders, races, and religions come together with a shared goal of growing their item of choice. Some want to start a business, while others want to win back a lost love. The garden blooms from a segregated group of individual plots into a real community as people's guards are lowered and they begin to really know one another. When the season ends, only time will tell whether this new community will thrive.
