The Hatchet's Blood Marc R. Schloss,2022-09-20 Winner of the Royal Anthropological Institute s Amaury Talbot Prize for African Anthropology The ritual complexes of the Ehing a farming people of southern Senegal embody an elaborate set of prohibitions on social behavior and prescribe the general rules of Ehing social organization Power is distributed and maintained in Ehing culture by the concept of Odieng hatchet which as a spirit acts upon human beings much as an ax does upon a tree falling from above to punish its victims for transgression Marc R Schloss s ethnography of the Ehing is a study of the meaning of Odieng s power explaining why its rules are so essential to the Ehing way of life

Readers and Writers in the Middle Grades Martha Combs,2003 The second edition of this popular book for grades 4 8 again reflects the author s emphasis on teaching reading and writing from a literature based perspective and engaging middle grades learners in integrated literacy experiences Coverage has been revised to meet the growing need to address early adolescents who still struggle with becoming proficient readers and writers Taking a holistic interdisciplinary approach to literacy development Combs deftly balances ideas for using authentic children s literature with techniques for making the most of the basal approach providing a rich mix of classroom tested models and examples that will serve future teachers well in their first classrooms and every classroom thereafter For future and practice elementary school reading teachers
