On the left side, there is a vertical navigation menu with several icons and text labels, though they are too blurry to read. The main content area is light-colored and contains various panels and charts. A prominent feature is a large, semi-transparent blue box in the center of the screen, which contains the text "EMC XtremIO storage provisioning" in a bold, dark blue font. The background shows a dashboard with a circular gauge chart on the left and several data tables or lists on the right, all rendered out of focus.
