

Experiential Learning Based on Kolb's Reflective Cycle

Topic: Family, Life & Experiences | Words: 3422 | Pages: 14

Introduction

Learning is essential to individuals' personal and professional growth, and various academic theories have distinct approaches to this subject. Experiential learning, known as Kolb's reflective cycle, is one framework that emphasizes empirical evidence as the primary learning instrument. Based on substantial experience, Kolb's reflective cycle introduces three additional stages of learning - thoughtful observation, abstract conceptualization, and active experimentation (Nagle and Tzoc, 2022). These three concepts are essential in experiential learning, laying the groundwork for reflective analysis. They help learners better understand themselves through a lens of personal experiences. Ultimately, the current reflective report summarizes my personal and professional development based on Kolb's reflective cycle.

Relationship with Yourself

In this section, I aim to highlight experiences of my personal and professional journey, analyzing my self-awareness and emotional intelligence. Moreover, I want to reflect on the relatively recent events since I am currently in the most challenging period of my life. I am thirty-three years old and a single mother trying to raise my five-year-old daughter properly. While I was initially optimistic about building a family, recent events have taken a physical and mental toll on me. My mother used to help me with household matters, such as babysitting for my daughter and assisting me with housework. However, she has recently collapsed with various illnesses, primarily affected by heart problems

Short Takes Elizabeth Penfield,1990 Lingua Fracta Collin Gifford Brooke,2009 This book begins from the assumption that there is an intrinsically technological dimension to rhetoric arguing that we have become so accustomed to practicing rhetoric in the context of print technologies that we have often naturalized or ignored that dimension New communication and information technologies do not simply provide us with new sites of rhetorical practice instead they challenge us to reconceive rhetoric altogether This groundbreaking volume argues that a rhetoric of new media should attend to ecologies of practice treating interfaced rather than texts as our sites and units of analysis To devise such a rhetoric the book offers a systematic reconsideration of the canons of classical rhetoric Rather than understanding the canons as stages in a linear composing process this book describes the canons as repertoires of multiple practices that shift as we move among media Drawing on examples that range from Wikipedia to World of Warcraft the book reconstitutes the canons restoring to them the vitality they held for ancient rhetoricians and reshaping them into a framework for understanding the technological developments facing future generations
