Resources in Education , 1990 The Road to Positive Advocacy for Your Gifted Child Carol Malueg, 2025-06-25 The journey from preschool to independent adulthood can present a tricky route to navigate when you are the parent or caregiver of a gifted or multi exceptional child The job of advocating for these children is not about providing the perfect education but about making the best choices within the given constraints Starting with the earliest school years this book provides caregivers with the resources they will need to positively advocate for their gifted child and to help their child become a strong self advocate Full of practical tips this book answers questions such as How can I meet other parents raising kids like mine Why can t schools meet the needs of my child How can I productively communicate with the educational team and more Providing expert guidance on collecting resources expanding your network and practicing and modeling positive advocacy skills this book will empower caregivers of gifted or twice exceptional children to trust their instincts and understand their options when it comes to their children s education Where Is My Happiness? Nikki Yang, 2010-04-19 Life is like an airplane that goes really fast We are only allowed to go forward we can never turn back Time makes us old and love make us sore Theres a lot of happiness in our lives but theres also much sorrow That is life That is what makes life so wonderful happiness sometimes and sadness other times Some people might think sadness is not a wonderful thing to keep and thats true But if we only had happiness without any sadness our lives wouldnt be that fun anymore I know sadness feels really bad It hurts us a lot Some people even lose their life because of tears but everybody has to have some sadness throughout life We just hope sad times go away faster and happy moments last longer Remember always smile while facing any emotional issues
