Select Notes on the International Sunday School Lessons ...,1879      Black Aliveness, or A Poetics of Being Kevin Quashie,2021-02-05 In Black Aliveness or A Poetics of Being Kevin Quashie imagines a Black world in which one encounters Black being as it is rather than only as it exists in the shadow of anti Black violence As such he makes a case for Black aliveness even in the face of the persistence of death in Black life and Black study Centrally Quashie theorizes aliveness through the aesthetics of poetry reading poetic inhabitation in Black feminist literary texts by Lucille Clifton Audre Lorde June Jordan Toni Morrison and Evie Shockley among others

showing how their philosophical and creative thinking constitutes worldmaking This worldmaking conceptualizes Blackness as capacious relational beyond the normative terms of recognition Blackness as a condition of oneness Reading for poetic aliveness then becomes a means of exploring Black being rather than nonbeing and animates the ethical question how to be In this way Quashie offers a Black feminist philosophy of being which is nothing less than a philosophy of the becoming of the Black world

Adorno's Poetics of Critique Steven Helmling,2009-03-09 Adorno's Poetics of Critique is a critical study of the Marxist culture critic Theodor W Adorno a founding member of the Frankfurt school and widely regarded today as its most brilliant exponent Steven Helmling is centrally concerned with Adorno's notoriously difficult writing a feature most commentators acknowledge only to set it aside on the way to an expository account of what Adorno is saying By contrast Adorno's complex writing is the central focus of this study which includes detailed analysis of Adorno's most complex texts in particular his most famous and complicated work co-authored with Max Horkheimer Dialectic of Enlightenment Helmling argues that Adorno's key motifs dialectic concept negation immanent critique constellation are prescriptions not merely for critical thinking but also for critical writing For Adorno the efficacy of critique is conditioned on how the writing of critique is written Both in theory and in practice Adorno urges a poetics of critique that is every bit as critical as anything else in his critical theory

Invisible Hands Jonathan Sheehan, Dror Wahrman,2015-05-29 In Invisible Hands the historians Jonathan Sheehan and Dror Wahrman identify a defining feature of the eighteenth century Enlightenment the decline of God as a source of order in favor of a new model of self-organization Sheehan and Wahrman provide a novel account of how people on the threshold of modernity understood the continuing presence in the world of apparent disorder randomness and chance If God no longer actively guaranteed that order will always prevail what or whom did The answer the authors argue was a new appreciation for complexity new understandings of causality and new functions for the divine hand At the foundation of this novel way of thinking was the ability to imagine complex systems be they natural or human as self-organizing Invisible Hands maps and explains the intensifying presence of the languages of self-organization throughout the eighteenth century proliferating as they did with ever greater sophistication across numerous intellectual domains and cultural arenas For self-organization was less a theory than a field of new insights insights into the dynamics of chance and randomness into the relationship between agency and determinism into the role of God in a world without hands on providence
