Magnetic City Justin Davidson, 2017-04-18 From New York magazine's architecture critic a walking and reading guide to New York City a historical cultural architectural and personal approach to seven neighborhoods throughout Manhattan Brooklyn and the Bronx including six essays that help us understand the evolution of the city For nearly a decade Pulitzer Prize winning critic Justin Davidson has explained the ever changing city of New York to his readers at New York magazine introducing new buildings interviewing architects tracking the way the transforming urban landscape shapes who New Yorkers are Now his extensive inspiring knowledge will be available to a wide audience An insider's guide to the architecture and planning of New York that includes maps photographs and original insights from the men and women who built the city and lived in it its designers visionaries artists writers Magnetic City offers first time visitors and lifelong residents a new way to see New York Includes walking tours throughout Manhattan Brooklyn and the Bronx the Financial District the World Trade Center the Seaport and the Brooklyn waterfront Chelsea and the High Line 42nd Street the Upper West Side the South Bronx and Sugar Hill Praise for Magnetic City An intimate seductive guidebook The New York Times An enthralling new book makes clear that I'm not alone in my home town infatuation lends nuance texture and historical perspective to my impression that New York City has never been so appealing or life affirming as it is today New York Post Davidson combines a keen intelligence experience observational skills expertise especially but not solely architectural and an elegant writing style to make this beautifully produced book indispensable Booklist starred review A street level celebration of New York City in all its perpetual complexity and contradiction a worthy companion to Alfred Kazin's A Walker in the City and the American Institute of Architects guides to the architecture of New York as well as a treat for fans of the metropolis Kirkus Reviews starred review Justin Davidson does more than direct our feet to New York's hidden monuments. He explains the structure of the city with a clarity that would be bracing even for a Gotham habitué, but more than that, he finds the meaning in every building and byway. Andrew Solomon, National Book Award-winning author of Far from the Tree, Mr. Davidson's exceptional knowledge of our beloved city is inspiring. Magnetic City is now my official chaperone. Patti LuPone: Justin Davidson has a mind alive to every signal, and his brilliant prose style transmits that electricity in black and white type. He is thus born to the task of capturing the chaotic splendor of New York City on the page. Alex Ross, author of Listen to This: Justin Davidson's beautiful tours of New York City invoke and redouble our love of the metropolis. Jerry Saltz, senior art critic, New York.

Zhang Hongtu, Luchia Meihua Lee, Jerome Silbergeld, 2016-02-05. In this book, leading art experts, art historians, and critics review the life career and artistic development of New York-based Chinese artist Zhang Hongtu. A pioneer in contemporary Chinese art, Zhang created the first example of China Pop art, and his oeuvre is as diverse, intellectually complex, and engaging as it is entertaining. From painting and sculpture to computer-generated works and multimedia projects, Zhang's art is equally rich in terms of China's history and its current events, containing profound reflections on China's oldest cultural habits and contemporary preoccupations. He provides a model of cross-cultural interaction designed to make Asian and Western audiences look more closely at each other and at themselves to recognize the beliefs they hold and the unexamined values they adhere to. From his early work in China during the Cultural Revolution to his decades as an artist in New York, Zhang reflects the complex attitudes of a scholar-artist toward modernity as well as toward Asian and Western societies and himself. Placing Zhang in the context of his cultural milieu, both in China and in the Chinese immigrant artist community in America, this volume's contributors examine his adaptations of classic art to reflect a contemporary sensibility, his relation to Cubism and Social Realism, his collaboration with the celebrated fashion designer Vivienne Tam, and his visual critique of China's current environmental crisis. Zhang's work will be on display at the Queens Museum in New York City from October 17, 2015, to March 6, 2016. Contributors: Julia F. Andrews, Alexandra Chang, Tom Finkelpearl, Michael Fitzgerald, Wu Hung, Luchia Meihua Lee, Morgan Perkins, Kui Yi Shen, Jerome Silbergeld, Eugenie Tsai, Thuy Linh Nguyen Tu, Lilly Wei. Co-published by the Queens Museum and Duke University Press.

Reading Underwater Wreckage, Killian Quigley, 2022-12-15. Presenting a novel and needed theoretical model for interpreting shipwrecks and other drowned fragments, the histories they tell, and the futures they presage as junctures of artefact and ecofact, human remains, and emergent ecologies, this book puts the environmental humanities and particularly multispecies studies in close conversation with literary studies, history, and aesthetic theory. Earth's oceans hold the remains of as many as three million shipwrecks, some thousands of years old. Instead of approaching shipwrecks as either artefacts or ecofacts, this book presents a third frame for understanding, one inspired by the material dynamism of sea floor stuff. As they become encrusted by oceanic matter, some of it living, some inanimate, anthropic fragments participate in a distinctively submarine form of material relation. That relation comprises a wide and sometimes incalculable array of things, lives, times, and stories.

Drawing from several centuries of literary philosophical and scientific encounters with encrustations as well as from some of the innumerable encrusted art forms that inhabit the sea floor this book serves anyone in search of better ways to perceive describe and imagine submarine matters 49th Publication Design Annual Society of Publication Designers,2015-06-01 The Society of Publication Designers SPD annual competition seeks the very best in editorial design work Judged by a worldwide panel of top designers the 49th edition of Rockport s best selling SPD annuals celebrates the journalists editorial directors photographers and other talented individuals who brought events of the year 2014 to our doorsteps and computer screens Stunning full page layouts present everything from products to people and objects to events in ways that make each palpable and unforgettable You ll find featured work published in a wide range of mediums and created by journalistic design and publishing talent from around the world The New York Times Magazine ,2005 Unsettled Visions Margo Machida,2009-01-23 A study of how artists of diverse Asian heritages and generational backgrounds use their artwork to articulate complex notions of identity and identification as Asians living in the United States 48th Publication Design Annual ,2014-02-01 The Society of Publication Designers SPD annual competition seeks the very best in editorial design work Judged by a worldwide panel of top designers the 48th edition of Rockport s best selling SPD annuals celebrates the journalists editorial directors photographers and other talented individuals who brought events of the year 2013 to our doorsteps and computer screens Stunning full page layouts present everything from products to people and objects to events in ways that make each palpable and unforgettable You ll find featured work published in a wide range of mediums and created by journalistic design and publishing talent from around the world New York ,2010-05 46th Publication Design Annual Society of Publication Designers,2012-01-01 The best visual design work is about emotion as much as appearance Powerful brilliant pictures presented in just the right layout can make us experience a whole range of emotions from fear to attraction anger to happiness The Society of Publication Designers SPD annual competition seeks the very best in editorial design work Judged by a worldwide panel of top designers the 46th edition of Rockport s best selling SPD series celebrates the journalists editorial directors photographers and other talented individuals who brought events of the year 2010 to our doorsteps and computer screens Stunning full page layouts present everything from products to people and objects to events in ways that make each palpable and unforgettable Featuring work published in a wide range of mediums and created by journalistic design and publishing talent from around the world Art Now Gallery Guide ,2006-03 FotoFest 2008 Steven Evans,Miroslav Ambroz,2008 Velvet Generation surveys the work of Czech photographers Gabriela Kolcavov Roman Franc Igor Malijevsk and Vojtech V Sl ma Accompanying a lauded exhibition at FotoFest Houston it is lavishly illustrated with over 90 striking images and includes texts by exhibition organizer Steven Evans art historian Miroslav Ambroz and preeminent photography scholar Anne Wilkes Tucker This ambitious book offers an investigation of the relationships between these artists and explores their shared visual vocabulary The New York Times Index ,2009
