This book is the first ever monograph dedicated to his works which explore themes as various as an African childhood, notions of Frenchness, inter-identities and post-Fukushima life in Japan. Hybridity is key to his themes, forms and genres which include, as befits a twenty-first century author, a website called Tokyo Time Table and discussed in this study. Kawakami uses an eclectic range of frameworks to analyse Ferrier's output ranging from translingualism to Environmental Humanities and Ferrier's own vision of his oeuvre which he discloses for the first time in this book in the interview that he grants Kawakami. This interview, first published in this volume, is rich in insights into Ferrier's views on dreams, Japan, the internet and collaborating with other artists. This book is an indispensable guide to an author who is one of the rising stars of contemporary French and Francophone literature and a unique voice that crosses all kinds of borders across the globe.    A Shorter French Course William Henry Fraser, John Squair, 1913    Cd, 1905    Monthly Weather Review, 1919    *Meisterschaft system ...
