A Little Bit About The Ceremony

A traditional Jewish wedding is full of meaningful rituals which symbolize the beauty of the relationship between the husband and wife, as well as their obligations to each other and to the Jewish people. The following guide explains the Jewish wedding traditions to help you better understand the beauty and joy of the celebration.

Ketubah (Marriage Contract)

In marriage, the chosson (groom) accepts upon himself certain marital responsibilities which are detailed in the Ketubah. His principal obligations are to provide food, shelter and clothing for his wife, and to be attentive to her emotional needs. The protection of the rights of a Jewish wife is so important that the marriage may not be solemnized until the contract has been completed.

The document is signed by two witnesses, and has the standing of a legally binding agreement. The Ketubah is the property of the kallah (bride) and she must have access to it throughout their marriage.

The reading of the Ketubah acts as a break between the first part of the ceremony - Kibbatim (betrothal), and the latter part - Nissuin (marriage).

Chuppah

The wedding ceremony then takes place under the chuppah (canopy), a symbol of the home to be built and shared by the chosson and kallah. It is open on all sides, just as Abraham and Sarah had their tent open on all sides to welcome friends and relatives in unconditional hospitality.

Bryan, followed by Allison, will be escorted to the chuppah by their respective families.

Blessings Of Betrothal (Kiddushin)

Two cups of wine are used in the wedding ceremony. The first cup accompanies the betrothal blessing, and after these are recited, the couple drinks from the cup. Wine, a symbol of joy in Jewish tradition, is associated with the Kiddushin, the sanctification prayer recited on Shabbat and festivals. Marriage, which is called Kiddushin, is the sanctification of a man and woman to each other.
