3 pages | 616 words

My heart was beating out my chest as I walked through the doors of Glasgow airport. We were invited on a trip to Florida by family friends a few months previously. Walking through the doors for the first time was paralyzing. My fear of flying became worse and worse every step I took. I woke up early that morning full of worry. I think it had something to do with all the Air Crash Investigation I was watching on the weeks leading up to the flight. I made sure all my stuff was packed and ready to go and that was it, we left around 5.30 am for the airport and I couldn't get the thought of dying in a plane of my head. Once we were on the plane and found our seats, I could only do one thing. Look for the lifejackets and oxygen masks! Everyone was seated, and the pilot came over the speaker and announced that we were about to take off. As the engines roared my eyes popped open wide, I took a deep breath and grabbed the seat handle tightly. I got more and more worried every second the plane moved the only thought going through my head was the I was going to die. As soon as we reached cruising altitude I began to calm down and played a film on the tiny screen placed in front of me. The thought of dying quickly left my mind, the clouds outside made me feel like I was in heaven. Although these feelings were fast to return when the pilot came over the speaker and reported that everyone should expect turbulence. My mind quickly races back to me watching Air Crash Investigation, most of the crashes began with turbulence. My heart was ready to explode as the plane began to bounce around. Ten minutes later everything smoothed out and I...
