The Question of Madness in the Works of E.T.A. Hoffmann and Mary Shelley Karin Preuss, 2003 Mary Shelley s novel Frankenstein or the Modern Prometheus was first published in 1818 A year before Hoffmann s novella Der Sandmann was published in the first of the two volumes of his Nachtstucke A major theme for Mary Shelley and E T A Hoffmann and a hitherto neglected aspect of academic research is the question of madness in Frankenstein and Der Sandmann Both texts represent certain features shared by the Romantic movements in Germany and England such as an ironic stance towards Romanticism itself its Prometheanism or its indulgence in the occult At the same time both authors criticise the Enlightenment project more than they do celebrate the idea of progress The first two chapters of this study stress the contrastive approaches of Hoffmann and Mary Shelley in their explorations of madness The rest of this analysis emphasises the similarities of mythological cultural and linguistic contexts within which Mary Shelley and Hoffmann settle their pre occupation with madness This study aims at finding out whether insanity is an illness of the isolated individual or whether society is sick itself Is insanity related to the body or the mind Is it an image for the crisis of representation in postrevolutionary Romanticism Moody Bible Institute Monthly ,1920
