

The Piano Roll view displays a MIDI sequence on a grid. The vertical axis represents pitch, and the horizontal axis represents time. A piano roll grid is visible, with a green vertical line indicating the current playback position. The sequence includes several notes, with some notes having a blue highlight. The notes are arranged in a pattern that suggests a melodic line. The piano roll grid is divided into measures, and the notes are placed on specific lines and spaces of the grid.

The Mixer view shows a multi-track mixer with 16 tracks. The tracks are labeled with names such as "Drums", "Bass", "Piano", "Prog Bass", and "Lead". Each track has a fader, a solo button, and a mute button. The "Prog Bass" track is highlighted in green. The mixer also includes a master section on the right with a volume knob and a solo button. The mixer is set to a stereo output mode. The tracks are arranged in a row, and the faders are positioned at various levels. The solo and mute buttons are located below the faders. The master section is located at the bottom right of the mixer.
