

Fairy Tale News Report: Reporter's Interview

Anchor: Good afternoon and welcome to A.M. 615, all news, all the time. We begin our programming this afternoon with some breaking news from The Land of Far Far Away. It seems Mr. Humpty Dumpty has had a terrible fall. We send it over to our man in the field, Breakfast Jack.

Reporter: Thank you Sandy. I'm here by the well near the castle where at 10:15 this morning, Mr. Dumpty endured this terrible fall. According to sources, Mr. Dumpty was out for his early morning walk when he was overcome by a terrible sneeze that sent him toppling forward. We are joined now by one of the King's horses who was first to arrive on the scene. Good Afternoon.

Subject: Good afternoon Jack.

Reporter: Can you please tell us the state of Humpty Dumpty at this time?

Humpty Dumpty: I'm horrible obviously!

Subject: Well, all the King's Horses and his men have been working tirelessly to put this shell of a man back together, but it has turned out to be difficult. We fear we may not be able to restore him to his former state.

Humpty Dumpty: I know I should have stayed home today!

King's Man: Humpty! Stop moaning! I'm trying to keep your shell from cracking more!

Reporter: Any advice for our listeners?

Subject: Take your allergy medication. We fear that with allergy season starting, there could be many more dangerous falls. Be cautious, don't let that sneeze be your last.

Reporter: And there you have it. From the horses' mouths. Back to you Sandy.

Pauline Greenhill,Sidney Eve Matrix,2010-08-06 To set the field fairy tales are traditional or literary fictional narratives that combine human and non human protagonists with elements of wonder and the supernatural Scholars of literature and film explore how such narratives manifest in film either native to it or changelings from written literature or oral tradition Among the topics are the commodification of childhood in contemporary fairy tale film Guillermo del Toro s Pan s Labyrinth El Laberinto del fauno and neomagical realism feminism and place in The Juniper Tree patriarchal backlash and nostalgia in Disney s Enchanted feminist cultural pedagogy in Angela Carter and Neil Jordan s The Company of Wolves and a secret midnight ball and a magic cloak in Stanley Kubrick s Eyes Wide Shut The Architecture of Suspense Christine Madrid French,2022-09-08 The inimitable haunting films of Alfred Hitchcock took place in settings both exterior and interior that deeply impacted our experiences of his most unforgettable works From the enclosed spaces of Rope and Rear Window to the wide open expanses of North by Northwest the physical worlds inhabited by desperate characters are a crucial element in our perception of the Hitchcockian universe As Christine Madrid French reveals in this original and indispensable book Hitchcock s relation to the built world was informed by an intense engagement with location and architectural form in an era marked by modernism s advance fueled by some of the most creative midcentury designers in film Hitchcock saw elements of the built world not just as scenic devices but as interactive areas to frame narrative exchanges In his films building forms also serve a sentient purpose to capture and convey feelings sensations and moments that generate an emotive response from the viewer Visualizing the contemporary built landscape allowed the director to illuminate Americans everyday experiences as well as their own uncertain relationship with their environment and with each other French shares several untold stories such as the real life suicide outside the Hotel Empire in Vertigo which foreshadowed uncannily that film s tragic finale and takes us to the actual buildings that served as the inspiration for Psycho s infamous Bates Motel Her analysis of North by Northwest uncovers the Frank Lloyd Wright underpinnings for Robert Boyle s design of the modernist house from the film s celebrated Mount Rushmore sequence and ingeniously establishes the Vandamm House as the prototype of the cinematic trope of the villain s lair She also shows how the widespread unemployment of the 1930s resulted in a surge of gifted architects transplanting their careers into the film industry These practitioners created sets that drew from contemporary design schools of thought and referenced real structures both modern and historic The Architecture of Suspense is the first book to document how these great architectural minds found expression in Hitchcock s films and how the director used their talents and his own unique vision to create an enduring and evocative cinematic world Publication of
