Abstract : This paper examines internet addiction from the perspective of consumer studies. Internet addiction could be an interesting issue for consumer studies because it is a sort of consumer behavior that has drawn a lot of social concerns in rapidly informatized era. First, the paper explores the status quo of internet addiction in Korea through the analysis of a questionnaire survey. Secondly, it explains causes of internet addiction focusing on alienation in addition to personality and demographic factors. Thirdly, it describes the characteristics of the behavior of internet-addictive users clustered by internet addiction degree. Based on these descriptions and analyses, the study provides suggestions for establishing more effective consumer policies and educational programs to help limit the growth of internet addiction.

Key Words : internet addiction, alienation, addictive consumption

I. INTRODUCTION

The number of internet users is increasing dramatically. As of December, 2002, about 665 million people uses the internet (eTForcasts; quoted from Chosunilbo, 2002). In Korea, the sixth largest internet country in the world, the number of internet users is up to 26.9 million, nearly 60% of the entire population. Obviously, these numbers suggest that the internet has
