

Answering Interview Questions

1. Tell me about yourself?

- Remember, 'tell me about yourself' does not mean they want your life story. Outline several of your strong points and accomplishments.
- Do not become nervous if an interviewer remains silent or use non-committal sounds like "uh-huh" or "hmm."
- Mention achievements such as grades, honors, and scholarships.
- Mention hobbies or special interests if related to the job, e.g. designing websites.
- Discuss what you learned from previous employment or how your volunteer work helped you develop your organizational, time management and leadership skills.
- When you run through your accomplishments, make a summing-up statement and then stop talking.

2. What qualifies you for this job?

- If the position is highly specialized or technical, offer specific skills that you have gained and demonstrated, e.g. IT skills.
- If the position is an entry level job, think of general skills and qualities that you have gained over the years, for example your ability to organize information, teamwork skills, or the fact that you are a quick and willing learner.
- Be prepared to provide specific examples of your skills or traits.

3. Why should we hire you?

- What makes you unique? Consider your collection of skills and personality traits that the employer would value.
- With regard to skills, if you have experience with the type of activities needed in the new job, discuss those in detail.
- With regard to personal traits, consider the characteristics that YOU would want in an employee, and then express them. For example: willing to learn, flexible, able to meet deadlines, work well with others, and conscientious.
- Be sure you can provide concrete examples to support what you say!

4. Why do you want to work for this company?

- Avoid giving unprofessional answers like: it's closer to home, the salary is better here.
- Read brochures and catalogues of the company and list 2 or 3 things that you have learned about the company that makes it sound like a good match for you and why.
- Mention that you like the kind of work being offered and feel you would be good at it and why.

5. Where do you see yourself in five years?

- Mentioning any specific goal might be risky; this goal might be taken seriously and ruin the chance of getting the job. So be realistic and try to mention the goals that won't lead the interviewer underestimate you.
- You do not want to give the impression that you're simply using this company as a stepping stone to another career or that you will leave when something better comes along.
- A good answer would be - I see myself spending time learning my job, then gradually gaining increased responsibility.
