Life Orientation For Final Exams 2013:

Handbook of Research on Student-Centered Strategies in Online Adult Learning Environments Fitzgerald, Carlton J., Laurian-Fitzgerald, Simona, Popa, Carmen, 2018-06-08 As traditional classroom settings are transitioning to online environments teachers now face the challenge of using this medium to promote effective learning strategies especially when teaching older age groups Because adult learners bring a different set of understandings and skills to education than younger students such as more job and life experiences the one size fits all approach to teaching does not work thus pushing educators to create a student centered approach for each learner The Handbook of Research on Student Centered Strategies in Online Adult Learning Environments is an important resource providing readers with multiple perspectives to approach issues often associated with adult learners in an online environment This publication highlights current research on topics including but not limited to online competency based education nontraditional adult learners virtual classrooms in public universities and teacher training for online education This book is a vital reference for online trainers adult educators university administrators researchers and other academic professionals looking for emerging information on utilizing online classrooms and environments in student centered adult education Research Anthology on Developing Effective Online Learning Courses Management Association, Information Resources, 2020-12-18 In the current educational environment there has been a shift towards online learning as a replacement for the traditional in person classroom experience With this new environment comes new technologies benefits and challenges for providing courses to students through an entirely digital environment With this shift comes the necessary research on how to utilize these online courses and how to develop effective online educational materials that fit student needs and encourage student learning motivation and success The optimization of these online tools requires a deeper look into curriculum instructional design teaching techniques and new models for student assessment and evaluation Information on how to create valuable online course content engaging lesson plans for the digital space and meaningful student activities online are only a few of many current topics of interest for promoting student achievement through online learning The Research Anthology on Developing Effective Online Learning Courses provides multiple perspectives on how to develop engaging and effective online learning courses in the wake of the rapid digitalization of education This book includes topics focused on online learners online course content effective online instruction strategies and instructional design for the online environment This reference work is ideal for curriculum developers instructional designers IT consultants deans chairs teachers administrators academicians researchers and students interested in the latest research on how to create online learning courses that promote student success Shadow Education and Social Inequalities in Japan Steve R. Entrich, 2017-12-07 This book examines why Japan has one of the highest enrolment rates in cram schools and private tutoring worldwide It sheds light on the causes of this high dependence on shadow education and its implications for social inequalities The book provides a deep and extensive understanding of the role of this kind of education in Japan It shows new ways to theoretically and empirically address this issue and offers a comprehensive perspective on the impact of shadow education on social inequality formation that is based on reliable and convincing empirical analyses Contrary to earlier studies the book shows that shadow education does not inevitably result in increasing or persisting inequalities but also inherits the potential to let students overcome their status specific disadvantages and contributes to more opportunities in education Against the background of the continuous expansion and the convergence of shadow education systems across the globe the findings of this book call for similar works in other national contexts particularly Western societies without traditional large scale shadow education markets The book emphasizes the importance and urgency to deal with the modern excesses of educational expansion and education as an institution in which the shadow education industry has made itself seemingly indispensable

Research on Emotion and Learning: Contributions from Latin America Camilo Hurtado-Parrado, Carlos Gantiva, Leonardo A. Ortega, Alexander Gómez-A, Lucas Cuenya, Javier Leonardo Rico, 2020-05-11 Latin America has increased its share of world scientific publications by nearly twofold during the last two decades approximately from 2 to 4% Despite this positive trend the scholarly impact of scientific research produced in the region measured in terms of citation rate remains low Two interrelated factors that contribute to this situation is that most research groups tend to work in isolation or in local sporadic collaboration and results are often published in journals that are not indexed in major citation databases e.g. SCOPUS or Web of Science Ultimately part of Latin American high quality research seems to remain hidden from the rest of the world Over the last decades an important number of Latin American scientists have developed fruitful research agendas on questions on learning and emotion focusing on basic and or translational research with humans and other animal models and implementing diverse methodologies Notwithstanding the important contributions of these research programs Latin American research on emotion and learning has followed the overall trend of other research fields throughout the region namely remaining partially hidden from the large scientific community of the world This Research Topic aimed to engage researchers from Latin America to share their empirical and conceptual work on learning and emotion Ultimately this effort was expected to strengthen and integrate our regional community of experts enhance global networking and establish new challenges and developments for future investigation

The Psychology of Health and Illness Leslie D. Frazier, 2025-06-30 The Psychology of Health and Illness is a thoroughly updated version of Leslie Frazier's previous textbook on health psychology which provides an engaging and contemporary approach to understanding health psychology from a truly international perspective Combining both biopsychosocial and lifespan developmental perspectives the book integrates core theory research and practice on global and cross cultural health issues It includes thoughtful and deliberately inclusive coverage of marginalized groups especially BIPOC LGBTQ and other underrepresented groups designed to raise diversity and racial consciousness in a globally integrative way Alongside classic health psychology concepts the author introduces students to cutting edge scientific and medical topics such as epigenetics the gut microbiome and the nonmedical use of prescription drugs The book also focuses on global public health and health disparities and promotes a strengths based approach to health rather than a deficits based approach It includes a wide range of pedagogical features including real world applications engaging anecdotes and case studies opportunities for self reflection and numerous text boxes This is essential reading for undergraduate students on Health Psychology courses as well as those in related fields such as nursing and the allied health professions

As If There Were No Tomorrow Maleen Fischer,2015-04-13 At the age of three Maleen Fischer was diagnosed with pulmonary hypertension and as there was no treatment for this fatal disease at the time in Austria the doctors sent her home Her life expectancy was only a few years Since this initial diagnosis Maleen has battled this disease every day of her life with amazing courage and resilience Few people around the world suffer from pulmonary hypertension thus researching a cure for this disease would not be an important endeavor for science A small bag that she always carries at her hips pumps medication directly into her heart via a catheter every 30 seconds it is the reason she is still alive today In As If There Were No Tomorrow this fascinating 18 year old young woman tells her story for the first time Maleen s inspirational message e Every person s life and fate has positive aspects You only have to search for them e
