Policy-Making in the GCC

Neil Quilliam, Mark C. Thompson, 2017-09-11 The GCC is a major player in the post 2011 reordering of the Middle East Despite the rise in prominence of individual Gulf states especially Kuwait Qatar Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates and the growth of the GCC as a collective entity surprisingly little attention has been paid to the actual mechanics of policy making in the region This book analyses the vital role that institutions are coming to play in shaping policy in the Gulf Arab states The research coincides with two key developments that have given institutions new importance in the policy process the emergence of a new generation of leaders in the Gulf and the era of low oil prices Both developments along with dramatic demographic change have compelled state and citizens to re evaluate the nature of the social contract that binds them together Contributors assess the changing relationship between state and citizen and evaluate the role that formal and informal institutions play in mediating such change and informing policy The book shows how academic social and economic institutions are responding to the increasingly complex process of decision making where citizens demand better services and further empowerment and states are obliged to seek wider counsel although wanting to retain ultimate authority With contributions from both academics and practitioners this book will be highly relevant for researchers and policymakers alike

Women and Politics Lynne Ford, 2018-05-15 Women and Politics is a comprehensive examination of women's use of politics in pursuit of gender equality How can demands for gender equality be reconciled with sex differences Resolving this paradoxical question has proceeded along two paths the legal equality doctrine which emphasizes gender neutrality and the fairness doctrine which recognizes differences between men and women The text's clear analysis and presentation of theory and history helps students to think critically about the difficulties faced by women in politics and about how public policies in education labour and the economy and family and fertility impact gender equality The fully revised fourth edition explores new critical perspectives recent political events and current challenges to gender equality including the 2016 presidential election and Hillary Clinton's candidacy the fight for equal pay and paid leave and the debate over reproductive rights and
