Glorious New Creation:

More Than Heaven T. Jeff Taylor, 2022-06-10 The Protestant church has wrestled since the time of the Reformation with how believers can be saved by grace but rewarded in degrees based on their works Though some through the years have argued that the Scriptures don't actually teach differing degrees of reward this has been the predominant view This book takes the minority view Believers are saved by grace alone through faith alone and the believers rewards and glorification are based on the finished work of Christ alone It is grace from start to finish The church is the bride of Christ and in the end all that is his is hers A Theology of Cross and Kingdom D. K. Matthews, 2019-11-19 Luther's theology of the cross has impacted major theologians and centuries of theology including the present and yet it is weakened by its reactionary theological determinism reductionism and understandable failure to properly integrate fluid melioristic and pro creation kingdom eschatology N T Wright's revolutionary cross articulated in The Day the Revolution Began Reconsidering the Meaning of Jesus's Crucifixion is a brilliant and clarion new creation eschatological call to action that suffers from a somewhat cryptic imprecise and unrefined eschatology Heino O Kadai has presented an authoritative and concise rendering of Luther's key insights Rustin Brian has carefully assessed whether Luther's theology of the cross deserves blame for the Deus absconditus of modernity in his Barthian influenced Covering Up Luther Robert Cady Saler has masterfully articulated a relevant and pastoral Theologia Crucis framed by Moltmann's Theology of Hope that is most applicable to the contemporary church and sociopolitical engagement A Theology of Cross and Kingdom sympathetically and creatively critiques and synthesizes dominant themes in such classical and contemporary theologies of the cross within a unified cross and kingdom eschatology Matthews deftly overcomes many of the less than helpful disjunctive approaches to the theology of the cross while proffering a way forward for this most influential and core theological treasure of the church Hope for the World Roland Chia, 2012-08-14 Hope is essential to human life Without hope humanity plunges into despair and life can lose all purpose and meaning Hope energizes people and communities and also produces forbearance and patience In this clear and accessible survey which incorporates Asian perspectives Roland Chia shows how Christian hope presses beyond the limits of both secular and religious world views and confronts the reality of pain suffering and death in the light of the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus Christ It is hope for God and in God The Sabbath Daniel Sidney Warner, 1894 Discipleship on the Edge Darrell W. Johnson, 2004 Revelation is probably the most read but least understood book of the Bible History is replete with examples of how not to interpret it and books featuring end of world prophecy claims based on Revelation consistently top the bestseller lists But how can the message of such an enigmatic book be applied to our lives today In Discipleship on the Edge Darrell W Johnson drives home the challenging and practical message of Revelation in thirty carefully crafted sermons Paying careful attention to the original context of Revelation and the circumstances surrounding its composition Johnson shows that the book is not a crystal ball but rather a discipleship manual Thoroughly researched and yet accessible this collection of sermons is a helpful resource for pastors and small group leaders who are looking for models to help them preach and teach the message of Revelation in a time when there is much confusion about the end times Darrell W Johnson serves as Scholar in Residence at The Way Church and Canadian Church Leaders Network in Vancouver British Columbia Canada A popular conference and retreat speaker he has also served as the preaching pastor for a number of congregations in North America and the Philippines as well as serving as Adjunct Professor of Preaching for the Doctor of Ministry program at Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena California and a Teaching Fellow at Regent College His other books include Experiencing the Trinity and Fifty Seven Words That Change The World Christ's Glorious Achievements.
