

The Beautiful Game

In 2014, more than one billion people watched the FIFA (football) World Cup Final between Argentina and Germany on television. Football (also known as soccer) is the world's most popular sport. There are football leagues in 208 countries of the world and billions of people play football worldwide each day. Some professional footballers are amongst the highest paid sports people in the world, receiving hundreds of thousands of pounds a week just for playing a game! How did this simple sport become so popular?

The Origins of Football

Nobody is entirely certain where football began, but examples of ball games that are a bit like football date back as early as the 3rd century BC in China. It was actually a way of training soldiers, using a ball filled with feathers, which was kicked between a 'net' made of bamboo canes.

Later on, in Britain, football was associated with violence and drunkenness and some kings, such as James I of Scotland in 1424, tried to ban people from playing it! However, football was a very popular game and people ignored these laws. Football was extremely rough back then and it did not have any official rules like it does now.

The Modern Game

Football as we know it today began in England in 1863. This is why Britain is known as 'the home of football.' The Football Association (FA) was formed. This was football's first ever governing body. Football started to have official rules and it was played in famous schools such as Eton. Soon there were 50 professional football teams and in 1872, the first ever FA cup was played. Football soon became popular all over the world, particularly in countries that were part of the British Empire. The first World Cup was played in 1930.

Sometimes football is still associated with violence and unruly behaviour. However, it also brings people together, teaching them how to play by the rules, to be part of a team and helping them to stay fit and healthy. During
