Grade 11 Life Orientation Exam Paper 2013:

Capturing Social and Behavioral Domains and Measures in Electronic Health Records Institute of Medicine, Board on Population Health and Public Health Practice, Committee on the Recommended Social and Behavioral Domains and Measures for Electronic Health Records, 2015-01-08 Determinants of health like physical activity levels and living conditions have traditionally been the concern of public health and have not been linked closely to clinical practice. However, if standardized social and behavioral data can be incorporated into patient electronic health records (EHRs), those data can provide crucial information about factors that influence health and the effectiveness of treatment. Such information is useful for diagnosis, treatment choices, policy, health care system design, and innovations to improve health outcomes and reduce health care costs.

Capturing Social and Behavioral Domains and Measures in Electronic Health Records Phase 2 identifies domains and measures that capture the social determinants of health to inform the development of recommendations for the meaningful use of EHRs. This report is the second part of a two-part study. The Phase 1 report identified 17 domains for inclusion in EHRs. This report pinpoints 12 measures related to 11 of the initial domains and considers the implications of incorporating them into all EHRs. This book includes three chapters from the Phase 1 report in addition to the new Phase 2 material. Standardized use of EHRs that include social and behavioral domains could provide better patient care, improve population health, and enable more informative research. The recommendations of Capturing Social and Behavioral Domains and Measures in Electronic Health Records Phase 2 will provide valuable information on which to base problem identification, clinical diagnoses, patient treatment outcomes assessment, and population health measurement.

Critical Racial Consciousness Among Diverse Youth: Global Perspectives and Educational Possibilities Tina M. Durand, Siphon Dlamini, 2026-02-11 Interdisciplinary scholarship on the salience of race and racism attests to the changeable yet pervasive underpinnings of hegemonic whiteness, white supremacy, and colonialism on global systems of oppression. Christian, 2019. Although the markers of racism vary across time and place, an understanding of the dynamics of systemic oppression and racialized social systems (Bonilla-Silva, 2021) is necessary for concomitant resistance, advocacy, and social change initiatives across international contexts. This begs the important question of how educational institutions support such processes in its citizenry, especially among young people. Applied scientific and neurological evidence attests to the developmental significance of the adolescent and early adulthood periods, characterized by contextually relevant gains in cognitive, social, and affective competencies. Brazilian educator Paulo Freire cast young people as uniquely positioned to enact the kind of radical hope and courage that are necessary to achieve a more equitable and racially just world. More specifically, youth develop critical consciousness or conscientização by becoming co-investigators in dialogue with mentors and each other through what Freire (1970, 1993) called a problem-posing pedagogy. In this dynamic process, students, as they are increasingly posed with problems relating to themselves in the world and with the world, will feel increasingly challenged and obliged to respond to that challenge Freire 1970 1993 p 62 As it relates to global racial inequity scholars have identified critical racial consciousness as a domain specific dimension of critical consciousness defined as one's beliefs perceptions emotional valence and activism associated with race Baales et al 2023 Indeed youth's ability to interrogate their lived experiences with racialized systems of dominance and inequality are tantamount to their sense of agency and civic engagement in their socio-political worlds Dyrness 2023 Yet strategies to support affirm and inspire youth in this process are less well understood in global context In this research topic we seek to provide interdisciplinary and global insights on the exciting potential of young people to be agents of change in the struggle for racial justice with a particular focus on the construct of critical racial consciousness We invite empirical theoretical and applied investigations using varied methodological approaches that examine questions such as the following What does critical racial consciousness and racial advocacy among racial ethnically diverse adolescents and young adults look like in different global contexts What geographic and contextual factors influence their respective emergence and manifestation What roles do educational institutions teachers and mentors play in nurturing critical racial advocacy among youth Topics might address but are not limited to the following themes within racial ethnically diverse youth populations Racial Consciousness among Youth Youth Critical Consciousness Development Youth Anti Racism Action Experiences with Racial Stereotype Prejudice and Discrimination Among Youth Perceptions of Racial Messaging Among Youth Ethnic Racial Identity and Ethnic Racial Attitudes and Awareness Youth Participatory Action Research YPAR in School or Community Contexts Teacher Critical Multicultural Pedagogy Anti racist Curriculum or Curricular Practices Research Practice Partnerships RPP Around Race and Social Justice Global Youth Community Projects Intersection of Youth Climate Change Activism and Racial Consciousness

Sexuality Education that Prioritizes Sexual Well-Being: Initiatives and Impact Jacqueline Hendriks, Allison Carter, Jessie Ford, 2025-12-01 All children and young people should receive comprehensive sexuality education from a variety of sources that empowers them to develop a positive self identity and provides them with the tools necessary to form healthy relationships and to manage their own sexuality and sexual health The positive impact such education has for the health and well being of individuals communities and societies has been extensively documented in academic literature Despite the strong evidence base the actual provision of sexuality education can vary markedly across settings and countries and may often focus on biology the prevention of violence diseases or pregnancy and the use of fear based or sex negative messaging Contemporary international guidelines and extensive empirical research strongly encourage strengths based models that are sex positive and empower young people to develop healthy relationships and to learn about pleasure and sexual well being Such programs are often grounded in human rights and ethical frameworks In reality specific examples of such programs and guidance about implementation are not easily accessible Research and evaluation data may also be limited or not widely shared The intention of this Research Topic is to showcase a variety of evidence based initiatives that prioritize and celebrate sexual well being through education The impact of such programs shall also be explored alongside broader discussions about implementation sustainability replication and scaling We are keen to spotlight initiatives that address a specific sexuality education topic alongside more extensive programs A variety of age groups preK 16 and educational settings e g home school community online are welcome Critically a key attribute of any showcased initiative is that it seeks to provide education via sex positive approaches that address sexual well being sex positivity and or pleasure This Research Topic welcomes research that includes but is not limited to the following scientifically rigorous evaluations of educational interventions empirical examinations of best practice in educational design meta analyses of educational practice innovation or pedagogies barriers and enablers to program implementation sustainability replication and or scale up cross cultural and or cross national studies study protocols Potential topics of interest include but are not limited to Inclusion of young people in educational design How pleasure discourse is contextualized within sexuality education curricula Human rights Implementation challenges Ethical issues Adolescents views on sex and pleasure education The role of digital technology We especially welcome submissions from young people people from key populations and community based organizations We request that submissions adhere to the principles of respectful and stigma free language

Creating Engaging Discussions Jennifer H. Herman, Linda B. Nilson, 2023-07-03 If you have ever been apprehensive about initiating classroom discussion fearing silences the domination of a couple of speakers superficial contributions or off topic remarks this book provides strategies for creating a positive learning experience Jennifer H Herman and Linda B Nilson demonstrate how to create the conditions to facilitate deep and meaningful learning as well as to assess the effectiveness of discussions They identify analyze and solve common problems in both classroom and online discussions and in both small and large classes They take a direct practice oriented approach that in acknowledging common challenges provides principles guidance on design examples of activities and techniques and eight detailed case studies These cases demonstrate successful approaches that faculty across disciplines and from a variety of institutions have adopted in their face to face blended or online courses at the undergraduate or graduate level The case authors begin by describing the original pedagogical challenge they faced and explain how they addressed it and assessed the results of their innovation They also offer practical recommendations to readers who may want to try their strategies Intended for faculty this book will be equally valuable for educational developers who can use this resource in their programs and private consultations At the graduate level this book can serve as a text or workshop resource in college teaching courses and teaching assistant development programs The final chapter provides a set of resources and activities including discussion questions on the case studies writing prompts and jigsaw formats that are equally appropriate for individual study or for use in workshop environments You'll never again have to suffer such a profound silence that as described by a contributor to the book she could hear the crickets chirping outside

Global Perspective Ben Akpan, 2016-08-03 Science Education A Global Perspective is global both in content and authorship. Its 17 chapters by an assemblage of seasoned and knowledgeable science educators from many parts of the world seek to bring to the fore current developments in science education and their implications. The book thus covers a wide range of topics in science education from various national and international perspectives. These include the nature of science, science and religion, evolution, curriculum and pedagogy, context based teaching and learning, science and national development, socially responsible science education, equitable access for women and girls in science and technology education, and the benefits of science education research. It ends on an optimistic note by looking at science education in 50 years time with a recommendation among others for stakeholders to take the responsibility of preparing children towards a blossoming science education sector in an anticipated future world. This book is suitable for use by discerning researchers, teachers, undergraduate and postgraduate students in science education and policy makers at all levels of education. Other educationalists and personnel in science and technology vocations will also find it interesting and useful as the reader motivated approach has guided the presentation of ideas. Science Education A Global Perspective is a rich compendium of the components of science education in context, practice and delivery. Dr Bulent Cavas, Professor of Science Education, Dokuz Eylul University, Buca, Izmir, Turkey, President Elect, International Council of Associations for Science Education (ICASE). This book will be of immense relevance for current and future global strides in training and research in science education. Surinder K Ghai, Chairman, Sterling Publishers Pvt Ltd, New Delhi, India. This book provides a refreshing insight into the current status and future direction of science education. It will be very useful to researchers, those pursuing undergraduate and post graduate courses in science education, and all other personnel involved in the policy and practice of science education. Dr Bennoit Sossou, Director, Country Representative, UNESCO Regional Office in Abuja, Nigeria. The Teaching and Learning Playbook Michael Feely, Ben Karlin, 2022-11-30. The Teaching and Learning Playbook is a book and online resource containing more than 100 techniques that teachers and school leaders can use to drive improvements in their schools. Each technique includes a summary of what the technique is, why it is important, the effect size, and a four step guide to how it should be performed. The Playbook provides a unique tool for teachers to identify how they can improve their teaching and practise with absolute clarity on what they need to do next. All techniques are accompanied by a video to show the technique in action and spotlight the four key elements with detailed audio commentary to make it easier for teachers to replicate. These can all be found on the website www.teachingandlearningplaybook.com. Codifying the key skills for every teacher to get better and for every school leader to drive improvements in their school, the Playbook covers Routines for Learning, Questioning and Checking for Understanding, Modelling, Explaining and Feeding Back, Resilience, Independence and Retrieval, Curriculum Beyond the Subject Classroom.
