

Level One, Level Two, Level Three Questions

Learning Goals: SWBAT

Identify the characteristics of level one, level two, and level three questions.

Example: Why do women often “suffer in silence” or put up with abuse?

Level Three Questions: These kinds of questions transcend the text. They are deep thinking questions. They are inspired by the text, but ask big picture questions about life.

Level Two Questions:

These questions are still connected to a text, but have more than one possible answer. Answering these kinds of questions requires that you analyze a theme, or a character’s motivations or development over time.

Example: Why does Neelima Kumar want to die young?

Level One Questions:

Clarifying questions about the text
Questions that have only one possible right answer
Questions that require you to look back in the text and review or re-read in order to find the answer.
These questions help you with reading comprehension– figuring out what is happening in a text.

Example: Who is Neelima Kumar’s mother?
