

LESSON 3: FICTION NARRATIVES

WRITING

ESSENTIAL QUESTION

How is a fiction narrative writing different than other kinds of writing?

MATERIALS

Lesson 3 mentor text
Fiction narrative anchor chart & student printable
Fiction narrative task cards & recording sheet

MINI LESSON

For the next couple of months, we are going to be writing fiction narrative stories. What does fiction mean?

"A fictional story is a story that did not actually happen. I want to start our unit by reading an example of a fiction narrative."

Read the lesson 3 mentor text to students or have them read it with partners.

"Who were the characters in the story? What was the problem in the story? How was the problem solved?"

How is a fiction narrative different than a personal narrative?"

"A personal narrative is a true story about something that happened to you. A fictional story is a story that you made up. It can be realistic- a story that COULD have happened. A fiction narrative can also be unrealistic- a story that COULDN'T happen. The main difference is that a fiction narrative is a made-up story with made-up characters."

Complete the Fiction narrative anchor chart and student printable together and have students glue the chart to the inside cover of their notebook.

WORK TIME

Set the Fiction narrative task cards on desks around the classroom. Set a timer for 10-15 minutes and have students work with a partner to determine whether the story on the card would be a Fiction narrative. Students will record their answers on the recording sheet. Have students complete as many cards as they can. It is OK if all students do not complete all of the task cards.

SHARE TIME

Discuss the answers from as many of the task cards as time permits. After, students will teach their partners about fiction narrative and give an example.

INTERVENTION

Goat through the task cards with a small group of students that need assistance. Use the cards and help talk them through. Assign only half of the cards.

EXTENSION

These students can write what type of writing each task card is an example of.

Is it a Fiction narrative?

a story about a baby with special powers

Is it a Fiction narrative?

a story about the time I visited my best friend in the hospital

Everything you need to teach, practice, and assess fiction narrative writing for eight weeks!
