

"LUCIFER is rewarding on so many levels. Its fantastic structure, compelling visuals, sharp characters, brilliant dialogue, and philosophically challenging narrative consistently made it one of the best reads on the shelves for years. An epic that matched its source material in density and scope, LUCIFER proudly picked up the flag for Vertigo's shared universe and planted it in a mountain of skulls. A modern comics classic."

— Comics Alliance

"The best fantasy comic around."

— Comics International

"From birth to death.
How small our circuits are.
How unerringly we find the paths that will unmake us."

Few have turned adversity to advantage on a scale comparable to Lucifer Morningstar. After gaining entry to a realm outside of his own Creator's dominion — and defending it against a host of would-be usurpers — the former Lord of Hell has achieved his greatest ambition: the creation of a new universe in which his will is absolute.

Now, after setting the last of his terrestrial (and infernal) obligations, Lucifer has turned to the familiar task of gathering souls. But in contrast to his previous offerings, immortals in his new realm will receive freedom instead of torment. The only law by which they must abide is that they never bow down in worship — to anyone.

Not all who pass through Lucifer's gates are content to honor these terms, however. And as proud as he is of his achievement, Lucifer should know better than anyone that pride goes before a fall.
