

DISCUSSION GUIDE - TEMPLATE BY LOOPANEL

RESEARCH GOALS

Provide a brief summary of the research context.

- Who are the key product stakeholders?
- What is the goal of the product or feature being researched?
- How will the research insights impact design and development decisions?

INTRODUCTION

During the first few minutes of the conversation, build rapport with the participant and set expectations. Cover consent for recording, data usage, and confidentiality. Make sure they understand their rights as a research participant.

Introductions: Hello, my name is XXX and I work on the research team for XXX. How are you doing today? Thank you for taking time to speak with us. Today's session will be casual - we're interested in learning about your honest experiences with our product/service. There are no right or wrong answers, so please share your thoughts freely.

Context: Let me give you some background about our research. (Example: We're working on improving our mobile app's checkout process and want to understand how people like yourself use it today.)

Usage of insights: We'll use what we learn from these sessions to XYZ (Example: make the checkout process faster and easier for our users.)

Recording consent: If you're comfortable, we'd like to record this session to help with note-taking. The recording will only be used by our research team and won't be shared externally. Your name and personal information will remain confidential. Do I have your permission to record?

Questions: Do you have any questions before we begin?

Voluntary participation: Feel free to ask questions anytime. If you need a break or want to stop, just let me know. [Add additional points as needed for your context]

INFORMATION COLLECTION

Confirm key details about the participant:

For example:

*How often do you use our product/service? (Validates screening criteria and provides context)
[Add screening validation questions as needed]*

Trauma, Resilience, and Health Promotion in LGBT Patients Kristen L. Eckstrand, Jennifer Potter, 2017-06-05 This book has two goals to educate healthcare professionals about the effect of identity based adversity on the health of their LGBT patients and to outline how providers can use the clinical encounter to promote LGBT patients resilience in the face of adversity and thereby facilitate recovery Toward this end it addresses trauma in LGBT populations factors that contribute to resilience both across the lifespan and in specific groups and strategies for promoting resilience in clinical practice Each chapter includes a case scenario with discussion questions and practice points that highlight critical clinical best practices The editors and contributors are respected experts on the health of LGBT people and the book will be a first of its kind resource for all clinicians who wish to become better educated about and provide high quality healthcare to their LGBT patients How to Think Ethically about Global Issues Stephen Minister,2024-06-21 This textbook is an introduction to thinking ethically about global issues Unlike existing books in this area this book is truly interdisciplinary and includes a range of voices from both the Global South and the Global North Rather than simply applying Western theories to case studies Prof Stephen Minister shows readers how to consider context and complexity while respecting the agency of people elsewhere It weaves together the work of thinkers and writers from the Global South with philosophical work on global ethics relevant scholarship from other academic fields and stories from fieldwork studying global issues on four continents The textbook explores a variety of topics including cultural difference gender population poverty natural disasters and development It then encourages students to build on these ideas and think more deeply about topics such as foreign aid inequality immigration international trade climate change human rights and war and terrorism Because the book s style is accessible and engaging it will be an excellent text for ethics and global studies courses as well as being of interest to general readers who want to think better about global issues Readers' Guide ,1912 Emblems: Teacher's guide ,1983 The Social Studies ,1928 Historical Outlook ,1928 The School Journal ,1903 New York School Journal ,1903 Instructor's Manual to Accompany Business Marketing Betty Pritchett,Dwyer,1999
