Week 11	Presentations	Wednesday, 5/19

Week 6—Pre-reading Responses and Chapters 1-4

---

Before you begin reading the novel, I want you to have some background information and discover some information about the author, the ideas in the novel, and the purpose for reading the novel. Take notes on your research and answer the following questions in your notes. Discuss your research and your answers this week in your groups.

Discovering Ishmael Beah

- Do an Internet search on Ishmael Beah. What do you learn about his life? What is Beah doing today?

Ideas in A Long Way Gone for you to consider

- What effects do you think war has for children in war zones?
- Should children and teenagers be held responsible for their actions during a time of war (for example, being enlisted as a soldier)?
- When struck by tragedy, how important is it to still have hope?

The Purpose

- Why should we read about another person's life experiences?
- What do people from other cultures have to learn from this story about the war in Sierra Leone?

A Long Way Gone Ishmael Beah, 2012 A study guide to A long way gone by Ishmael Beah Provides an author biography in depth chapter by chapter summary and analysis a short summary a character list and related descriptions list of themes glossary historical context essays and quizzes

African Memoirs and Cultural Representations Toyin Falola, 2023-02-14 Traditions and cultures represent a set of persisting or prevailing beliefs social practices oral linguistic and values that define an individual's way of life In other words in memoir writing the emphasis is often to propagate a unilateral need or embrace of self identity However the dominant narrative and method of analysis in this study holds the notion and privileges that tradition and cultures imbibed by memoirists are sometimes subverted refashioned or reworked due to the strand of experiences or realities they encounter in different spaces as their narration develops Thus memoirists embrace indifference and open mindedness which is also greatly explored in the context of autobiography

Teaching the Tough Issues Jacqueline Darvin, 2015 Teaching the Tough Issues introduces a groundbreaking teaching method intended to help English social studies and humanities teachers address difficult or controversial topics in their secondary classrooms Because these issues are rarely addressed in teacher preparation programs few teachers feel confident facilitating conversations around culturally and politically sensitive issues in ways that honor their diverse students voices and lead to critical transformative thinking The author describes a four step method to help teachers structure discussions and written assignments while concurrently assisting them in addressing Common Core State Standards Designed to aid students in both developing their own viewpoints on contentious issues and in actively critiquing those of their teachers and peers these practices will enhance any humanities curriculum

Book Features Offers guidance for exploring difficult and or controversial aspects of course content Provides an excellent means of differentiating instruction and promoting critical literacy Helps teachers to foster positive behavior and decision making with their students Enables students to improve their reading writing speaking listening and observation skills Assists teachers in attaining the CCSS and other curricular mandates in their secondary humanities classrooms Darvin has provided us all with a powerful tool for guiding students as they explore their identity unafraid to explore what it means to be human

From the Foreword by Douglas Fisher professor of educational leadership San Diego State University Darvin takes on the big important issues in adolescents lives that often go unaddressed in most classrooms With an equal balance of sensitivity and directness she exhorts teachers to name deconstruct and think curricularly about the cultural and political forces influencing and being influenced by today's youth
