Activity 1: Let's Work and Learn

TYPES	DESCRIPTION
Book Review or Article Critique	An analytic or critical review of a book or article is not primarily a summary; rather, it comments on and evaluates the work in the light of specific issues and theoretical concerns in a course. (To help sharpen your analytical reading skills, see our file on Critical Reading .) The literature review puts together a set of such commentaries to map out the current range of positions on a topic; then the writer can define his or her own position in the rest of the paper.
Literature Review	A literature review is an overview of the previously published works on a specific topic. The term can refer to a full scholarly paper or a section of a scholarly work such as a book, or an article. A literature review surveys books, scholarly articles, and any other sources relevant to a particular issue, area of research, or theory, and by so doing, provides a description, summary, and critical evaluation of these works in relation to the research problem being investigate
Research Report	A research report is a publication that reports on the findings of a research project or alternatively scientific observations on or about a subject. Research reports are recorded data prepared by researchers or statisticians after analyzing
