Lesson Plans

Each lesson plan response is organized in a consistent format for ease of use.

This overview page highlights students' essential learning objectives, the content of questions on the lesson, explicit language development strategies, and a suggested timeline for the lesson.

Step 1: Students create content- and literacy-based questions, activate and build background knowledge, and learn strategies for the learning objectives or content to be taught. Students and teachers can refer back to the 7 tasks during the rest of the lesson. Make daily check-ins to begin or help with targeted skills. It ensures that students gain deeper content knowledge. See page 50 for the question bank information about these helpful activities.

Step 2: Students engage with the text by creating the fictional story and completing literacy activities.

Step 3 and 4: Students deepen their understanding of the text by creating the content and completing reading and writing activities. It demonstrates how and when civically responsible actions are taken.

Step 5: Students apply what they have learned by completing the Civics in Action activity. The activity gives students the opportunity to demonstrate their understanding of the text.
