

Gun Control Position Paper

A position paper is an essay that presents an argument about an issue. Typically, a position paper is written after reading about and discussing a particular issue. The central goal of writing a position paper is to state and defend your position on the issue. As you write the position paper, you will practice skills such as articulating a thesis statement that contains an overall claim, developing an argument with reasons and evidence, and using transitions and reader cues for coherence. You will also practice the following skills:

- collecting information from readings on a particular issue
- positioning one's claims in relation to other positions on the issue
- documenting sources using MLA in-text citations and works cited
- choosing an effective organizational strategy
- researching the library and Internet for sources

Purpose of the paper: To argue your position on gun control in the United States using information and evidence gathered from classroom activities and library research.

Strategies:

- Focus on a specific, clearly stated thesis on the issue.
- Develop your argument by defending your with evidence from classroom activities & outside research. Use clearly stated reasons and relevant, effective evidence. Reasons should represent sound logic.
- Organize your paper in a way that effectively conveys information to your readers, is easy to follow, and presents your position in relation to those of the authors.
- Document all outside sources using MLA in-text citations and works cited.
- Write in a style that is clear, readable, appropriate to audience, and free from distracting errors in spelling, grammar, and usage.

Requirements:

- Length: 3-5 pages
- Sources/References: minimum of 3, one of which must oppose your position
- Documentation: Parenthetical in-text MLA citation and work cited
- Format: typed, double spaced, 1-inch margins, 12 point Times New Roman

Sample Outline:
