She provides innovative real-world examples of libraries which are using these technologies to enhance their online presence, showcase services and increase patronage. Information Trapping Tara Calishain, 2007. How many times have you run a Google search that resulted in thousands of results? With over 8 billion pages online and more posted every day, the Web more than likely contains the information you're looking for if only you could find it. In this book, Internet search engine expert Tara Calishain makes researching more efficient and rewarding for anyone for whom the Web is an indispensable tool. She does so by teaching the latest techniques for building automated information gathering systems. As an alternative to the typical one-time search for information, Tara demonstrates how readers can use RSS feeds, page monitoring tools and other software to set up information streams of many different data types, from text to multimedia to conversations for capture and review.

Book jacket. Informationweek, 2005. The Blue Book on Information Age Inquiry, Instruction and Literacy Daniel Callison, Leslie B. Preddy, 2006-09-30. Based on many years of columns from School Library Media Activities Monthly, authors Daniel Callison and Leslie Preddy present key terms in a working theoretical model that may be used in developing and understanding the power of information inquiry in instruction. This book is both a revision and an update to Key Words: Concepts and Methods for Information Age Instruction (LMS Associates, 2003). New columns from School Library Media Activities Monthly are included and entirely new key words for instruction are introduced. These key terms have immediate value for staff development purposes. They are reproducible and can be used in building year-long study group programmes in schools and libraries or as weekly discussion handouts. An entirely new section on inquiry has been added. An in-depth and invaluable section of resources and web sites has been updated. In addition to the theoretical base, the authors include much practical instructional application for immediate use The Blue Book on Information Age Inquiry Instruction and Literacy is the new definitive work on information inquiry and information literacy instruction The authors have thoughtfully blended theories in education and library science in a book that finally gives us a picture of the huge role of the school library media specialist as both a teacher and a librarian who needs to understand interpret and instruct students in the skill of inquiry the basis of all learning Back cover The Hidden Web Maureen Henninger,2008 A generation has grown up believing that everything can be found on the Web But how do you separate quality information from the dross Maureen Henninger addresses these and other such issues and assumes that for most readers the Internet is no longer a mystery Searcher,2008 PC Magazine ,2008
