

Classroom Setup

An inclusive classroom for all

Goal

To create a classroom environment that is inclusive and supportive for all students.

How

By providing a variety of seating options, including traditional desks and chairs, as well as alternative seating like beanbag chairs, floor mats, and standing desks. This allows students to choose the seating that works best for their individual needs and preferences.

Content

The content focuses on the importance of creating a supportive and inclusive classroom environment. It highlights the benefits of providing alternative seating options and offers practical strategies for implementing these options in the classroom.

Why

Providing alternative seating options is essential for ensuring that all students have access to a comfortable and functional learning environment. This is particularly important for students with physical disabilities, chronic pain, or other conditions that may affect their ability to sit at a traditional desk.
