4.5.2 Project

The project will be a piece of work in which knowledge, skills and values which lead towards competence in the specific or integrated content, are demonstrated. The project requires extended reading and writing on the part of the learner. The project will involve thorough investigation into and sourcing information on a selected topic in the curriculum. This could take the form of an interview, observation and making suggestions to improve upon the topic. The objective for the project should be clear and thorough planning should take place, e.g. preparing the questions for an interview. This is followed by the research, and finally the data/ information has to be collated into evidence. The evidence will be in the form of an essay with sub-headings relating to the criteria of the task.

Although learners will spend time outside of contact time to collect resources and information, the completion of the task has to be facilitated by the teacher in class time. The topic and nature of the project will be determined by the content covered according to the annual teaching plan. Learners should be given a project before the end of the second term, after the content related to the project has been addressed, for submission during the third term. Learners will need adequate guidance at the outset of the project and progress should be monitored throughout. All assessment criteria applicable to the project has to be discussed with the learners prior to the commencement of the project.

- Community project to address a social or environmental issue
- Investigation of lifestyle choices and their impact on the overall well-being of the South African youth

Current Sino-Russian Relations. Authoritarian Symbiosis, Strategic Partnership or Fragile Inter-marriage of Limited Duration? Daniel Schmidt, 2022-03-31. Bachelor Thesis from the year 2019 in the subject Politics Region Russia grade 1.0 Rhine-Waal University of Applied Sciences. Language: English. Abstract: In times of global political cataclysms where the old Washington-led Western liberal order is stumbling with nationalism and protectionism on the rise and old alliances being challenged, a new kind of super-heavy Sino-Russian diplomatic double-star system is apparently rising in the East since 2001. Thus, I dedicated this paper to the examination of the quality of contemporary Sino-Russian relations. The hypothesis is that if Sino-Russian relations live up to the high level that is reiterated by their respective officials and state-sponsored media, it needs to be observable that such is thoroughly beneficial for both sides' core and long-term interests. Therefore, I have come up with a two-tracked approach: First, I will quantitatively analyze i) their voting behaviors at the UNSC and UNGA, ii) the development and composition of their bilateral trade levels, and iii) the two states' comparative classical indicators of strength: i.e. population size, GDP levels, and defense spending levels. Second, I will qualitatively analyze how Sino-Russian relations unfold within the context of i) the military security-focused SCO, ii) the regional economic agenda of the two concepts of EAEU.

and SREB and iii the multilateral global order aspirations of the BRICS and their recent process of institutionalization via the NDB and CRA My research implicates that the relationship has already passed its point closest to equilibrium with Russia becoming increasingly marginalized since Hence this thesis argues that albeit there are areas of matching interests the indicators point towards a questionable long term durability of the Sino Russian relationship Metals Handbook
