

A detailed painting depicting the arduous task of building a railroad through a rugged, mountainous landscape. In the foreground, two men are shown in profile, working on a rocky ledge. One man, wearing a dark blue shirt and dark pants, is using a large hammer to strike a rock. The other man, wearing a light blue shirt and dark pants, is using a pickaxe. In the background, other workers are visible on a steep, rocky slope, and a valley with a winding path or road is visible in the distance. The sky is filled with soft, white clouds, and the overall scene is one of intense labor and perseverance.
