

TINY FINGERPRINTS

Tiny fingerprints on windows and doors
Messy toys all over the floor
You Windex and polish but we just mess some more

Constant messes and sleepless nights
Running water and left-on lights
It all seem tedious when we are small
While crayons and fingerprints cover your walls

But soon those tiny fingerprints will be gone
We will grow up and life will go on
And then those messy, busy days
Will be only memories that seem like a haze

So here is a keepsake that you can treasure
Our tiny fingerprints you can keep forever
A set of handprints that won't wipe away
As a way to help you remember these days
When we are small and just can't wait to say
We love you! Happy Mother's Day!
