You are advised to spend not more than 30 minutes in answering Question 1 and 20 minutes in answering Question 2.

Question 1.

(Do not spend more than 30 minutes on this question.)

Write a composition (300-350 words) on any one of the following:

(i) Write an original short story in which two children and their school teacher are the main characters.

Ans. There is a story of an elementary teacher. Her name was Mrs. Sophia. And as she stood in front of her 5th grade class on the very first day of school, she told the children that she loved them all the same. But that was impossible, because there in the front row, slumped in their seats, were two little boys named Max and John. Mrs. Sophia had watched Max and John the year before and noticed that they didn't play well with the other children, that their clothes were messy and that they constantly needed a bath. Mrs. Sophia didn't like them at all and treated them badly.

At the school where Mrs. Sophia taught, she was required to review each child's past records and she put Max and John's off until last. However, when she reviewed their file, she was in for a great surprise.

Max's first grade and second grade teachers wrote, "Max is a bright child with a ready laugh. He Does his work neatly and has good manners."

John's first grade and second grade teachers wrote, "John is an excellent student, well liked by his classmates, because of his great learning skill."

Max's third grade and fourth grade teachers wrote, "His mother's death has been hard on him. He tries to do his best but his father doesn't show much interest and his home life will soon affect him if some steps aren't taken."

John's third grade and fourth grade teachers wrote, "John's father has died and he is withdrawn. He doesn't show much interest in school. He doesn't have many friends and sometimes sleeps in the class."

By now, Mrs. Sophia realised the problem and she was ashamed of herself. She took the decision to pay a particular attention to Max and John. As she worked with them, their mind seemed to come alive. The more she encouraged them, the faster they responded. She took great pains to make them better. By the end of the year Max and John became the brightest children of the class and also her "teacher's pets."

A year later, she found a note under her door, from Max and John, telling her that she was still the best teacher they ever had in their whole life. Six years went by before she got another note from Max and John. They wrote that they had finished their high school, with excellent grades and she was still the best and favourite teacher they ever had in their whole life.

The story didn't end there. As the time passed by, Max became a great scientist and John became a great architect. One day, they both came to meet Mrs. Sophia. She hugged both of them. They said, "Thank you Mrs. Sophia for believing in us. Thank you so much for making us feel important and showing that we could make a difference." Mrs. Sophia, with tears in her eyes said, "You have it all wrong. You were the persons who taught me that I could make a difference."

(ii) Imagine a situation where you get an opportunity to change one thing in your school. What would it be? Why do you want to change it? How would you bring about the change?

Ans. If ever, I get an opportunity to change one thing in my school, I would like to make changes in our school canteen. A school canteen should be a clean and healthy one and it should provide healthy food items to the students. Healthy foods include multigrain sandwiches, soups, pasta, curries, veg-dalia, vegetable salads, fruit salads etc. If we
