Instructional Models in Computer-Based Learning Environments Sanne

Dijkstra, Hein P.M. Krammer, Jeroen J.G. van Merriënboer, 1992-12-14 In the last decade there have been rapid developments in the field of computer based learning environments A whole new generation of computer based learning environments has appeared requiring new approaches to design and development One main feature of current systems is that they distinguish different knowledge bases that are assumed to be necessary to support learning processes Current computer based learning environments often require explicit representations of large bodies of knowledge including knowledge of instruction This book focuses on instructional models as explicit potentially implementable representations of knowledge concerning one or more aspects of instruction The book has three parts relating to different aspects of the knowledge that should be made explicit in instructional models knowledge of instructional planning knowledge of instructional strategies and knowledge of instructional control The book is based on a NATO Advanced Research Workshop held at the University of Twente The Netherlands in July 1991 Government Reports Announcements & Index, 1988 Tests, Measurement, and Evaluation Arthur Bertrand, Joseph P. Cebula, 1980 The Riverside Reader Joseph F. Trimmer, 1996 This well respected collection of essays and short stories emphasizes the connections between the reading and writing processes and presents the rhetorical modes as ways of thinking and discovering purpose Guide to 150 Popular College Majors College Entrance Examination Board, 1992 Groups majors into 17 fields of study Each entry describes the content of the major including what's new in the field what subjects to study and what related majors to consider A Resource Guide for Teaching Richard Dean Kellough, 1997 Practical and thorough this engaging resource guide truly practices what it preaches hands on activities rich research based performance driven teaching Coverage integrates the best ideas from a broad spectrum of instructional approaches into an eclectic teaching model that the author characterizes as multilevel instruction This is truly one of the most comprehensive books on the market today made even better in this latest edition Coverage includes the relationship among curriculum standards assessment and high stakes testing what's need to establish and maintain a supportive learning environment and updated information on outstanding school programs For professionals in the field of teaching
