

SAMPLE HONORARIE FUND-RAISING LETTER

Date: 2013

Name

Address

City, State Zip

Dear Salutation:

I am writing you because I have been selected as an honoree for Jacksonville's Finest, a charity gala to benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation that recognizes young professionals. This entertaining evening of awards, dinner, dancing and a silent auction is one of the most popular fund-raisers on Jacksonville's charity calendar and is expected to raise more than $75,000 this year.

As a participant, I have committed to raising $1,500 for The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. I am asking you to support my campaign with a tax-deductible donation of $100, $50, or whatever you can make, to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation on my behalf. The proceeds from this event will buy science, that will one day, lead to a cure for CF.

Cystic fibrosis is a genetic disease that shortens the lives of those children and adults born with it. When the Foundation was organized 54 years ago, few children born with CF lived to attend elementary school. Today, the median age of survival is 37.8 years. Just as the median age has risen, so too, has the quality of life. Your donation can help insure those affected by CF continue to have additional tomorrows.

On behalf of the many families affected by CF, thank you, in advance, for your kind generosity. A return envelope has been included for your convenience. If you would prefer to donate online please go to <http://www.CF.org/Donate>.

Sincere regards,

Jane Doe/John Doe
2013 Jacksonville's Finest Honoree

P.S. It is important to have confidence when considering charitable giving. According to the 2011 CF Foundation Report, the CF Foundation's efficiency factor (fundraising and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenues) was a commendable 16.1 percent. This means "Nearly 84 percent of every dollar of revenue raised was available for investment in vital CF programs." You can be assured that money raised with your donation will be used wisely.

Planned Giving, Management, Marketing, and Law Ronald R. Jordan, Katelyn L. Quynn, 1999-10-20 Unlike other areas of fund raising planned giving brings fund raising professionals into contact with lawyers accountants financial planners consultants and wealthy donors They need to be able to speak the same language as the donors and their advisors while still keeping their own organization's goals in mind This book can help them address these and other vital issues related to starting marketing administering and expanding a planned giving program This book is supplemented annually

Memory, Family, and Community in Roman Ephesos Angela Kalinowski, 2021-07-15 This is the first book to analyse urban social relations in the eastern Roman Empire through the perspective of one elite family From the late first to the mid third century CE the Vedii and their descendants were magistrates priests and priestesses of local and imperial cults and presided over Ephesos many religious festivals They were also public benefactors paying for the construction of public buildings for the pleasure of fellow citizens This study examines the material evidence of their activities the buildings with their epigraphic and decorative programs to show how members of the family created monuments to enhance their own and their family's prestige It also discusses the inscriptions of the honorific statue monuments raised by the city and its sub groups for the family in return for their benefactions arguing that these reflect the community's values and interests as much as they commemorate the benefactors and their families

The Planner's Use of Information Hemalata C. Dandekar, 2019-08-28 For more than 35 years planners have depended on The Planner's Use of Information to help them address their information needs. While the ability to manage complex information skillfully remains central to the practice of planning, the variety and quantity of information have ballooned in the last two decades. The methods of accessing and handling information, although often ultimately easier and faster, require new technical savvy. At the same time, planners themselves and the constituents they serve have changed. This completely revised and updated third edition of this popular book will serve the new generation of planners who work in a world where social media, cell phones, community embedded development, and a changing population have revolutionized the practice of planning. Edited again by Hemalata C. Dandekar with chapters by leading experts in data collection, analysis, presentation, and management, The Planner's Use of Information empowers practitioners to use and address the impacts of twenty-first century technologies. The book offers a range of methods for addressing many kinds of information needs in myriad situations. It is an invaluable day-to-day resource for practicing planners and an ideal classroom text for courses in planning, communication, and analytical methods. Illustrations, real-life examples, cartoons, exercises, bibliographies, and lists of online resources enrich the text.

Advances in Anesthesia 2014 Thomas M. McLoughlin, 2015-03-26 Each year Advances in Anesthesia brings you the best current thinking from the preeminent practitioners in your field. A distinguished editorial board identifies current areas of major progress and controversy and invites specialists to contribute original articles on these topics. These insightful overviews bring concepts to a clinical level and explore their everyday impact on patient care.
