Christ, Power and Mammon Scott Thomas Prather,2013-08-15 This book examines the role of the New Testament concept of the principalities and powers in the thought of Karl Barth and John Howard Yoder showing how this biblical concept of power is central to the fundamental theological convictions of each thinker Prather offers a scholarly account of the underexplored theological and ethical import of a major biblical theme and the book addresses questions and concerns from a wide range of academic and lay theological interest He brings Barth and Yoder into dialogue here and examines the three crucial areas the confessional distinction of church and world the demonization of political power and the intrinsic relation between the political and economic powers While other theologians have rightly identified a christocentric connection between the thought of Barth and Yoder no attempt has been made to bring them together through the sustained analysis of a single doctrinal or ethical issue this book does just that

The Unassumed Is the Unhealed Kevin Chiarot,2013-09-24 This work addresses a pivotal and controversial area lying at the heart of T F Torrance s Christology Namely that Jesus Christ assumed fallen and sinful humanity and living out a sinless life from within our alienated state healed our human nature This is a claim that is conceptually basic to Torrance s integration of incarnation and atonement and thus to his soteriology as a whole It s pervasive nature and its significance within the overall structure of Torrance s thought is thoroughly and sympathetically set forth Christ s assumption of sinful flesh is seen to lie underneath a number of disputed areas in Torrance s thought such as the role or lack thereof of human responsibility and the question of universalism This work not only illuminates but rigorously examines the claim that the unassumed is the unhealed

Formative Lifeways in Central Tlaxcala, Volume 1 Richard G. Lesure,2014-12-31 This book the first of a projected three reports on excavations at Formative period sites in the state of Tlaxcala Mexico The transition to the Formative in the relatively high altitude study region is later than in choice regions for early agriculture elsewhere in Mesoamerica From 900

BC however population growth and sociopolitical development were rapid A central claim in the research presented here is that a macroregional perspective is essential for understanding the local Formative sequence In this volume excavations at three village sites Amomoloc Tetel and Las Mesitas and one modest regional center La Laguna are reported Ceramics are described in detail An innovative approach to the classification of figurines is presented and a Formative chronology for the region is proposed based on seriation of refuse contexts and radiocarbon dates The work concludes with a macroregional framework to be used in the analysis of subsistence social relations and political economy in forthcoming volumes 2 and 3
