

Huckleberry Finn Study Guide Answers

Chapters 1-10

1. Identify the main theme. How does the title relate to the main theme?

Theme: Innocence vs. Experience. The title relates to the main theme because Huck is a young boy who is innocent and naive, while Jim is an experienced slave who has seen and done many things that Huck has not. The title also suggests that Huck will have to learn from his experiences and grow up.

2. Why does Huck get along with Jim? What does Huck learn from Jim?

Huck and Jim get along because they are both outcasts in their society. Huck is a white boy who is considered a "low-down" because of his father's abuse, and Jim is a black man who is considered a slave. They both feel that they are being treated unfairly and they find comfort in each other's company.

3. What does Huck think about religion, especially the good and the bad places, and people?

Huck thinks that religion is a lot of talk and that people who are good and kind are the ones who really matter. He is skeptical of the religious teachings that he hears from the church and the people who go to church.

4. What are the main examples of hypocrisy in the novel?

Example 1: The church members who say they are good but do bad things.

Example 2: The people who say they are good but are actually very selfish.

5. How does Huck use his own ideas to make decisions?

Huck uses his own ideas to make decisions because he is a young boy who is not allowed to do what he wants. He has to think for himself and make his own choices, even if they are not the ones that the other people in his life would want him to make.
