Gauteng Mathematics September 2014 Paper 2:

Knowledge, Curriculum and Equity Brian Barrett, Ursula Hoadley, John Morgan, 2017-07-20 In 2008 the first in a series of symposia established a social realist case for knowledge as an alternative to the relativist tendencies of the constructivist post structuralist and postmodernist approaches dominant in the sociology of education The second symposium focused on curriculum and the development of a theoretical language grounded in social realism to talk about issues of knowledge and curriculum Finally the third symposium brought together researchers in a broad range of contexts to build on these ideas and arguments and with a concerted empirical focus bring these social realist ideas and arguments into conversation with data Knowledge Curriculum and Equity Social Realist Perspectives contains the work of the third symposium where the strengths and gaps in the social realist approach are identified and where there is critical recognition of the need to incrementally extend the theories through empirical study Fundamentally the problem that social realism is seeking to address is about understanding the social conditions of knowledge production and exchange as well as its structuring in the curriculum and in pedagogy The central concern is with the on going social reproduction of inequality through schooling and exploring whether and how foregrounding specialised knowledge and its access holds the possibility for interrupting it This book consists of 13 chapters by different authors working in Oceania Asia Europe Africa and North America From very different vantage points the authors focus their theoretical and empirical sights on the assumptions about knowledge that underpin educational processes and the pursuit of more equitable schooling for all Cases on Quality Initiatives for Organizational Longevity Krishnan, Archana, 2018-06-20 Over the past decade increasing competition has created immense opportunities for businesses globally As such it important to research new methods and systems for creating optimal business cultures Cases on Quality Initiatives for Organizational Longevity is a scholarly publication that examines cases on practices in organizations and how they have facilitated transformation over the years Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as customer loyalty benchmarking and employee training this book is geared toward business owners managers entrepreneurs professionals researchers and students seeking current and relevant research on contemporary cases in the field of business quality management South African national bibliography, 1999 Classified list with author and title index Ecological Limits of Development Kaitlin Kish, Stephen Quilley, 2021-11-03 Embracing the reality of biophysical limits to growth this volume uses the technical tools from ecological economics to recast the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs as Ecological Livelihood Goals policy agendas and trajectories that seek to reconcile the social and spatial mobility and liberty of individuals with both material security and ecological integrity Since the 1970s mainstream approaches to sustainable development have sought to reconcile ecological constraints with modernization through much vaunted and seldom demonstrated strategies of decoupling and dematerialization In this context the UN SDGs have become the orchestrating drivers of sustainability governance However biophysical limits are not so easily sidestepped Building on an ecological economic critique of mainstream economics and a historical sociological understanding of state formation this book explores the implications of ecological limits for modern progressive politics Each chapter outlines leverage points for municipal engagement in local and regional contexts Systems theory and community development perspectives are used to explore under appreciated avenues for the kind of social and cultural change that would be necessary for any accommodation between modernity and ecological limits Drawing on ideas from H T Odum Herman Daly Zigmunt Bauman and many others this book provides guiding research for a convergence between North and South that is bottom up household centred and predicated on a re emerging domain of Livelihood In each chapter the authors provide recommendations for reconfiguring the UN s SDGs as Ecological Livelihood Goals a framework for sustainable development in an era of limits This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of ecological economics socio ecological systems political economy international and community development global governance and sustainable development
