Light from the Christian East James R. Payton Jr.,2009-12-14 James R Payton Jr introduces us to Eastern Orthodox history theology and practice For all readers interested in ancient ecumenical Christian theology and spirituality this book is especially open and sympathetic to what evangelicals can learn from orthodoxy

The Inquisition and the Christian East, 1350-1850 Cesare Santus,Laurent Tatarenko,2025-05-27 A groundbreaking volume that radically refocuses our study of early modern Catholicism within a wider geographical and cultural context The intricate relationship between the Roman Church and the Christian East has long been underestimated in shaping early modern Catholicism Similarly scholarship on the Inquisition has largely overlooked how it interacted with members of the Eastern branch of Christianity Yet these groups frequently faced the scrutiny of the judges of the faith who were in turn exposed to alternative disciplinary and doctrinal models that questioned Catholic certainties This volume delves into the debates surrounding the compatibility of Eastern norms and traditions with the principles of the Counter Reformation focusing on Greek Arab and Slavic communities as well as Armenians Ethiopians and Syriac Christians from the Ottoman Empire and India among others The essays examine topics such as the confessional surveillance of Eastern Christians in Catholic territories and the responses of Roman theologians to thorny questions posed by missionaries around the globe Through a meticulous study of rich untapped archival resources in a wide array of languages this collection reveals how the interaction with Eastern Christianity exposed some of the contradictions and unresolved problems of Tridentine Catholicism while providing the Inquisition with a set of cultural tools and interpretive lenses that would eventually be applied in the missionary and theological controversies that shook the Catholic world from the seventeenth century onwards

List of Lights, and Other Marine Aids ,1982 Light from the East Alexei V. Nesteruk, In this unique volume a new and distinctive perspective on hotly debated issues in science and religion emerges from the unlikely ancient Eastern Orthodox Christian tradition Alexei Nesteruk reveals how the Orthodox tradition deeply rooted in Greek Patristic thought can contribute importantly in a way that the usual Western sources do not Orthodox thought he holds profoundly and helpfully relates the experience of God to our knowledge of the world His masterful historical introduction to the Orthodox traditions not only surveys key features of its theology but highlights its ontology of participation and communion From this Nesteruk derives Orthodoxy s unique approach to theological and scientific attribution Theology identifies the underlying principles logoi in scientific affirmations Nesteruk then applies this methodology to key issues in cosmology the presence of the divine in creation the theological meaning of models of creation the problem of time and the validity of the anthropic principle especially as it relates to the emergence of humans and the Incarnation Nesteruk s unique synthesis is not a valorization of Eastern Orthodox thought so much as an influx of startlingly fresh ideas about the character of science itself and an affirmation of the ultimate religious and theological value of the whole scientific enterprise

We do not simply interpret God's word His word interprets us Figural interpretation has been a trademark of Anglican devotions from the beginning Anglican readers including Tyndale Cranmer Hooker and Lewis have been figural readers of the Bible By paying attention to how words images and narratives become figures of others in Scripture these readers sought to uncover how God's word interprets all of reality Every verse shines the constellation of God's story Edited by David Ney and Ephraim Radner the essays in All Thy Lights Combine explore how the Anglican tradition has employed figural interpretation to theological Christological and pastoral ends The prayer book is central it immerses Christians in the words of Scripture and orders them by the word With guided prayers for morning and evening this book invites readers to be reformed by God's word Become immersed in the riches of the Anglican interpretive tradition      The Light of Russia Donald Alexander Lowrie, 1923      Missions Howard Benjamin Grose, 1922      The Christian Advocate ,1907
