

My First Speech

I was very shy. I never liked speaking in front of people. One day, my teacher said, "You will give a small speech tomorrow." I was scared. That night, I wrote my speech and read it many times. My hands shook when I stood in front of the class. But I looked at my friends, took a deep breath, and spoke. Everyone clapped when I finished. My teacher smiled. "You did it!" she said. I felt proud. I learned something important that day. Even if something feels hard, you can do it if you try. Now, I am not so afraid to speak. I found courage inside me.
