

Mid-Term II Questions

Thursday, 3 November 2022

On exam day we will randomly select two of these four questions; of those two, you will choose the one you want and write an essay answering that question. Your answer should be detailed, and include specific examples to support your arguments, with names, events, dates, etc. as appropriate (the reason I am giving you a question pool in advance is that I don't want general, vague answers!). Please remember that if you work up outlines of these questions in advance, I will go over them with you and advise you if I see any errors or omissions. Take advantage of this offer!

1. Analyze the relationship between Britain and France, from the reigns of Henry I through Henry VI.

Britain vs. France through the reigns from Henry I – Henry VI

- Henry I (1100 – 1135)
 - Third son of William I. Succeeds his older brother, William Rufus.
 - Conflict with other brother, Robert of Normandy → The battle of Tinchebrey 1106 → Unites Normandy and England.
 - Moreover, Normandy is essentially a part of France, but no tension is issued amongst the two nations until later kings.
- Matilda (1102 – 1167) & Stephen (1096 - 1154)
 - Daughter of Henry I and her cousin Stephen fight for the throne. Which leads to...
 - The Anarchy (civil war) (1138 – 1153) → Ends with Matilda's son Henry II claiming the throne after both Stephen and his son die.
 - Whole noble issue within England but no issues/significant relations with France for right now.
