Myths and Legends

Myths and legends are stories that are passed down from generation to generation. They are often used to explain natural events and human behavior. Myths and legends are often used to teach children about the world and themselves.

Creatures

Myths and legends have fantastical creatures. These creatures often help the hero or stop the hero from achieving his or her goal. Usually these creatures have special powers.

Setting

Myths and legends are often set in very interesting places. As the quest for the hero is going to be a difficult one, the places they travel to will also be interesting. e.g. high mountains, dark woods or dangerous caves.

Quest

A quest in a myth or legend is the journey the hero has to take to find something. During the quest, the hero often faces several challenges before completing the quest.

Myths

A myth is based vaguely on a real event but is more than likely a story that has been created to teach people about something meaningful. At the time, people didn't understand the world, so myths were often used to explain things such as earthquakes, hurricanes, the sun, the moon and stars, and death.

Legends

Legends are stories that have been passed down from person to person over a long period of time. They are often based on a true event or a real creature. The story, however, is often changed over time. Legends often have a hero as the main character.

Heroes

Heroes are characters in myths and legends who are often very powerful. They are often the ones who save the world. For example, Hercules has great strength.
