Got a paper to write? Here's a tip: don't worry about the formatting, JUST WRITE. Besides, this MLA template for Word has the formatting done for you. Just replace everything in brackets with your information (remember the heading!) and you're good to go. And, of course, replace this stuff with your content. But read this first! There's some really important info here!

Do yourself a favor and save this template to your computer. There are bunch of little nuances that are really easy to miss - the heading, the spacing (no space after a paragraph), the drop cap - drop cap written in pink (this one is to make a name - and just write, use this heading
