At 2.30 in the afternoon, Antara was taking a bath. Suddenly she heard an unusual commotion and came out. The sight that greeted her was that of four men, who had forced their way in, pinning her mother to the ground. They had pulled out guns, knives and choppers and were trying to suffocate her. "They put a gun to her head and were asking for the keys to the locker," says Antara. Her first reaction was to help her mother. "Then I thought, how can I do that? They are fully armed," she explains. She tried to retreat quietly to her bedroom and raise an alarm. But just as she was closing her bedroom door, one of the miscreants spotted her. He started hitting the door, trying to break it down. Antara quickly grabbed the phone. She called up the police control room, informed her father, who was away at work and also rang her neighbours. She then opened the window and shouted for help. The watchman of the building and two constables from the police station, right opposite the building, ran to their apartment. Anticipating trouble, the robbers tried to flee. The watchman managed to nab two of them. "The whole thing happened within 10 minutes and I think it changed me forever," smiles Antara.
