

END OF YEAR

READING COMPREHENSION

The image shows three overlapping reading comprehension worksheets. Each worksheet has a title 'END OF YEAR' and a paragraph of text. The middle worksheet is the most prominent and contains the following text and questions:

Paragraph 1: The Class Celebration

To celebrate the end of the year, the class planned a party for the class. The students brought snacks, games, and music. Some wore silly hats, and others danced in the classroom. The teacher made a slideshow of photos from the year, and everyone laughed and cheered as they saw themselves on the screen. At the end of the party, the class made student certificates—some for reading, others for helping, and some for kindness. "You've all made this year special," she said. The students cheered and hugged each other, knowing they had made great memories.

Comprehension Questions

- What kind of party did the class plan?
- What did the slideshow show?
- What were the certificates for?
- How did the students feel at the end of the party?

The other two worksheets are partially visible behind it. The left one has a title 'END OF YEAR' and a paragraph starting 'The school had been for the last year and soon...'. The right one has a title 'END OF YEAR' and a paragraph starting 'At the end of the school year, the students decided to write a class...'. Both also have comprehension questions.
