Sealy, 1928 Educational Assessment for the Elementary and Middle School Classroom Gary D. Borich, Martin L. Tombari, 2004

Brief and practical this popular book focuses on what classroom assessment is and how to do it and bridges the gap between testing a learner's knowledge of particular information and measuring his or her ability to transfer knowledge and think strategically. Coverage encompasses all of the issues surrounding the use of classroom assessments: validity, reliability, bias, impact. Through targeted discussions that address everything prospective teachers need to know completely yet succinctly. The authors offer a comprehensive menu of techniques for assessing not only what learners know but also how they think, how they perform, and how they apply what they know within authentic real-world contexts. For individuals administering tests and implementing other measurements tools for the assessment of students in elementary and middle schools.

Committee on Curriculum-Making, 1927 Bulletin Missouri State Teachers' Association Missouri State Teachers Association, 1918 All Children Read Charles A. Temple, 2008

Written by one of the most dynamic author teams in the field of Reading and Literacy, the second edition of All Children Read continues to offer K-8 teachers the best practices for nurturing emergent literacy, teaching early literacy concepts, and developing reading and writing in all students, those of varying reading levels and abilities as well as those who are English language learners. The new edition increases its emphasis on the professional aspects of literacy instruction and also includes significant new coverage of fluency and vocabulary, differentiated instruction, and connections to the SIOP and the all-important topics of literacy assessment. Central to the text are the six overriding themes: the troubled reader, family, community, literacy, technology, writing, and reading connections, language diversity, and phonics/phonetic awareness, interwoven throughout, making this book the most contemporary and critical learning aid to come out in the field in years.
