Language Policy and Planning in the Mediterranean World Marilena Karyolemou, Pavlos Pavlou, 2014-08-11

Language Policy and Planning in the Mediterranean World is a collection of the best papers presented at the MedLPLP conference held at the University of Cyprus in 2009 enriched with invited contributions on the same topic. The book presents a panorama of situations with countries such as France, Germany, Cyprus, Malta, Italy, Spain, Poland, Turkey, Greece, Bulgaria, Albania, Romania, and Serbia. It explores various aspects of the weight and ecology of the Mediterranean languages, discusses LPP in the light of international law and the protection of human rights, bilingual education, and foreign language acquisition policies. It also addresses the issue of feminization in a broad range of Mediterranean languages, comparing French, Italian, Spanish, and for the first time, Standard and Cypriot Greek. Finally, the book also discusses language revival and renovation policies, language planning in the public space, as well as cases of micro language management. The volume is an excellent source of information for scholars and students of LPP interested in the synchrony and diachrony of Mediterranean languages in aspects of LPP activity in various Mediterranean countries and in specific LPP processes involving several languages within the area.

Lessons and Legacies XIV Tim Cole, Simone Gigliotti, 2020-10-15

The Holocaust in the Twenty-First Century: Relevance and Challenges in the Digital Age challenges a number of key themes in Holocaust studies with new research. Essays in the section Tropes Reconsidered reevaluate foundational concepts such as Primo Levi's gray zone and idea of the muselmann. The chapters in Survival Strategies and Obstructions use digital methodologies to examine mobility and space and their relationship to hiding, resistance, and emigration. Contributors to the final section Digital Methods: Digital Memory offer critical reflections on the utility of digital methods in scholarly, pedagogic, and public engagement with the Holocaust. Although the chapters differ markedly in their embrace or eschewal of digital methods, they share several themes: a preoccupation with the experiences of persecution, escape, and resistance at different scales; individual, group, and systemic methodological innovation through the adoption and tracking of micro and mezzohistories of movement and displacement; varied approaches to the practice of Saul Friedländer's integrated history; the mainstreaming of oral history; and the robust application of micro and macrolevel approaches to the geographies of the Holocaust. Taken together, these chapters incorporate gender analysis, spatial thinking, and victim agency into Holocaust studies. In so doing, they move beyond existing notions of perpetrators, victims, and bystanders to portray the Holocaust as a complex and multilayered event.

Normalizing Mental Illness and Neurodiversity in Entertainment Media Malynnda Johnson, Christopher J.

Olson, 2021-04-20. This volume examines the shift toward positive and more accurate portrayals of mental illness in entertainment media, asking where these succeed and considering where more needs to be done. With studies that identify and analyze the characters' viewpoints and experiences of mental illness across film and television, it considers the messages conveyed about mental illness and reflects on how the different texts reflect, reinforce, or challenge sociocultural notions.
